15. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be read so as to li it in any way the power of the Board of Governors to appoint, create and constitute any further committees or offices of management as they may deem advisable from time to time for the more orderly and efficient administration of the College and its affairs.