

CONTENTS.

xi

|            | PAGE |
|------------|------|
| mbay       | 274  |
|            | 276  |
| were then  | 277  |
|            | 278  |
|            | 279  |
| ica. Sir   |      |
| of Chris-  |      |
|            | 281  |
|            | 284  |
|            | 285  |
|            | 286  |
| ore 1664.  |      |
|            | 287  |
| Bishop of  |      |
|            | 288  |
| Benefices. |      |
| an Act of  |      |
|            | 289  |
| ench Pro-  |      |
|            | 290  |
| French     | 291  |
|            | 292  |
|            | 293  |
| ided into  |      |
|            | 294  |
|            | 295  |
| inisters,  |      |
|            | 296  |
| an's Ad-   |      |
|            | 297  |
| he Negro   | 300  |
|            | 301  |
|            | 302  |
| arbados.   |      |
|            | 304  |
|            | 306  |
|            | 307  |
| etter to   |      |
|            | 308  |

|                                                               | PAGE |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Remarks thereon                                               | 311  |
| English settlers in Carolina                                  | 315  |
| The first Carolina Charter, 1662-3. Its provisions respecting |      |
| the Church                                                    | 316  |
| And those not in communion with her                           | 317  |
| Drummond the first Governor of Carolina. Its second Charter,  |      |
| 1665                                                          | 319  |
| Constitutions drawn up by Locke, 1669                         | 320  |
| Provisions contained therein on the subject of religion       | 321  |
| Locke's views respecting it                                   | 322  |
| And slavery                                                   | 325  |
| Failure of the Proprietary government of Carolina             | 326  |
| Emigration of Huguenots                                       | 328  |

CHAPTER XVII.

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND IN THE BERMUDAS, VIRGINIA, AND MARYLAND, FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE REIGN OF CHARLES II. TO THE LATTER END OF THE REIGN OF WILLIAM III.

A.D. 1660—1702.

|                                                          |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| THE BERMUDAS.                                            | 332 |
| Their condition and form of government. Churches and     |     |
| Clergy                                                   | 333 |
| Overwhelmed by sectaries                                 | 334 |
| Dissolution of the Bermudas Company. Governor Coney      | 335 |
| Evils of religious discord                               | 336 |
| VIRGINIA. Act for Colleges and Schools                   | 337 |
| Appointment of readers                                   | 338 |
| Severity of other Acts                                   | 339 |
| Acts concerning the Indians. Instructions to Berkeley on |     |
| Church matters                                           | 341 |
| Conspiracy                                               | 343 |
| Baptism of slaves                                        | 344 |
| Bacon's rebellion                                        | 345 |
| Berkeley's recall. Death and character                   | 346 |