

- 14, 160, 161-2; on the
of Jesus, 24, 25; re-er of Jesus, 12-14, 16,
of a Galilean fisherman, Christianity before Christ,
imperfect understanding the apostles, 162, 308 n.
35, 340-2.
the Christian view of,
idea of, 330-1; Job's philosophic view superior ian, 331-2.
from the dead, records of,
els, 181-2 n, 264-5, 277,
ideas as to, 291 n, 301, evidence required to 24, 291 n; not proved resurrection, 295-6; no ular favour, 293. See of Jesus, 22-9, 281-96;
us was in the grave or 96 n; miracles at, 181-ected by the disciples, prophecies of Jesus as t believed at first, 194;
ief in, on early Chris-
; and on the teaching es, 257 n; the central doxy, 281; grounds of
; discrepancies in ac-24-8, 282-4, 286-90;
nucleus of fact, 283;
of eye-witnesses, 284-eneral, 23, 284 n, 291-nition of Jesus after,
; theories as to, 25-6,
ent conduct of apos-
of no doctrinal value,
pledge of our resur-6; unless spiritual, odily, 25, 27, 295-6.
the body, Prof. Bush
Pearson on, 296 n;
n, 360.
y far possible, 66; a-lity of, 88, 89-90; of or immoral doctrines, to the soul not the cannot be proved by 80, 294-5; if based on,
roy of science, 279;
of claims of Christi-29-31, 297-317; is it undiscoverable truth?
temporary and pro-how known to be moral truths, not ne-294, 319, 320.
Revelation of St. John. See Apocalypse.
Riches, Christ's teachings as to, 50-3;
Mrs. Barbauld on the pursuit of,
371 n.
Ritualism, discountenanced by Christ,
61; worthlessness of, 318-9.
Romans, credulity of, 107.
Roman soldiers, their discipline, 183.
Rome, Church of, its attitude towards science, 119; Matthew Arnold on the miracles of, 279-80.
Rousseau, how far, inspired, 103.
SABBATH, Mosaic law of, superseded by Jesus, 86; its bearing on the meaning of the word "day," 122; a day's journey on, 200.
Sacrifices, discrepant views in the Bible regarding, 152.
Saint Fructuosus, Matthew Arnold on miracles at martyrdom of, 279-80.
Saint Médard, convulsionnaires of,
248 n.
Saints, rising of, at Christ's resurrection mythical, 181-2; prayers to, 327 n.
Sallust, orations in, manufactured,
186 n.
Salvation, scheme of, 33-4 n; by faith, its slight scriptural foundation, 225-6; an immoral doctrine, 33-1, 227-8.
Samaritan leper, healing of, by Jesus,
240 n.
Samaritan Version, of the Pentateuch
more spiritual than the Hebrew, 147 n.
Samaritan woman, Christ's discourse with, 214, 240 n.
Samaritans, as to preaching the gospel to, 200, 240 n, 241; not Gentiles, but heretical Jews, 240 n.
Samothracia, 235 n.
Samson, a Nazarite, 175; Strauss on his being a late-born child, 202, 203.
Samuel, Strauss as to his being a late-born child, 202, 203.
Sapphira, story of, 53.
Sarah, late-born child of, 203.
Satan, said to have been the source of the Irvingite delusion, 248 n, his power to work miracles, 263, 269-70.
Saul. See Paul.
Schleiermacher, on the Gospels, 156 n; on the composition of the Synoptic Gospels, 163, 164, 165-7;
on the composition of Luke's Gospel, 167; on the miraculous feeding, 179 n; on the first chapter of Luke, 201-2; on the second, 204-5; on Luke's account of Christ's baptism, 207; on interpolations in Luke, 207, 209 n.
Scholten, on the Apostles' Creed,
34 n; on dogmatic Christianity,
34-5 n.
Science, its conflict or harmony with Scripture, 118-24.
Scotch, pursuit of wealth by, 51;
former frugality of peasantry, 47.
Scribes, their conceptions of God, 108.
Scriptures. See Bible, Canon, New Testament, Old Testament.
Second coming, Christ's prophecies of his, 196-8; expectation of, by apostles, 93 n, 98, 249-50, 253-6, 257 n.
Self-sacrifice, enjoined by Christianity, 319.
Septuagint, translation of word "potter" in, 178 n.
Shakespeare, how far inspired, 103, 299; as to prodigies on Cæsar's death, 182 n; as to growth of miracles, 280.
Shemaiah, reproves Jehoiada for not punishing Jeremiah, 131.
Shiloh, meaning of word, 136 n.
Sichem, 219 n.
Sidney, Algernon, on consequences,
153 n, 233.
Signs, common among the Jews, 204, 270; of belief, 243 n, 250.
Silas, supposed to be Luke, 159, 235 n.
Siloam, its erroneous interpretation in the Fourth Gospel, 219 n.
Simeon, his song, 204.
Simon Bar-jona. See Peter.
Sin, forgiveness of, the Christian doctrine of, irrational and immoral, 335-43; is punished by its natural consequences, 336, 338, 339-42, 369-70 n; cannot be forgiven, 335, 339-43, 356-7; Christ's view of, 339 n; belief in forgiveness a cause of sin, 340-1; consequences of sin eternal, 356-7 n; propagation of, 366 n; future punishment of, 355-8, 377, 379.
Sincerity, enjoined by Christianity,
319.
Socrates, Xenophon and Plato's diverse views of his discourses, 212-3.
Solidarity of mankind, 17-8, 320,
323 n.
Solomon's Song, when written, 79.