

VII.—RENT—(Continued).	PAGE.
Kinds of rents—Rent-service	47
Rent-charge	48
Rent-seck	48
Rack-rent	48
So much "per annum"	48
Rent reserved to a stranger	48
Death of landlord	49
Tenant must have possession	49
Re-entry	49
Tender, requisites for	49
Payment, to whom to be made	49
Payment by tenant of charges on lands	50
Lease by life tenant	50
Apportionment of rent	50
Destruction of premises	51
Assignment by lessee, effect of	52
Cases	52

VIII.—TAXES.
General principle	54
Local improvements	54
Mode of assessment of real property	55
Mode of collection of rates	55
Collector's roll	55
Collector's duty	55
Levy for taxes	56
Exemptions	56
Goods of owner	56
Person assessed not in possession	57
Removal of goods apprehended	57
Non-residents	58
Procedure by collector for distress	58
Taxes recoverable as debt	58
Collector may require rent to be paid to him.....	58
Taxes a lien on land	59
Sale for taxes	59
Arrears of taxes	59
Cases	59

IX.—DISTRESS.
"Distress" defined	63
Six years' arrears recoverable	64
Effect of taking security	64
Tender, when it prevents costs	64
Bailiff may receive rent	64
Set-off	64
Requisites to enable a distress to be made	65
Rent accruing subsequent to notice to quit	65
Landlord must own reversion	65
Relation of landlord and tenant does not now depend on tenure	65
Effect of present legislation	65
Express stipulation may confer right to distrain.....	66
Right of assignee of reversion	66
Executor	67
Mortgagee	67
What may be distrained for	68
General rule	68
Common law exceptions	68