cials of the Canadian Northern and

Next week train employes and officials of the Canadian Northern and the Grand Trunk Railway will be brought up in the police court to answer two charges, one alleging that the companies are "permitting an indictable nuisance" and the other that they are breaking the Public Health Act.

The real grievance that the city has against the railway companies is that they have been "disturbing the peace" of Torontonians all over the city by shunting cars and blowing whistles thru the night hours. Last year Acting Mayor Church made an investigation at Ottawa into the powers of the Dominion Railway Board and found out that the Dominion Railway and whistling of the companies.

At the last session of the Dominion House of Commons a bill was brought in giving this needed right to the contract.

Or to be prepared by the Department of Labor, which schedule will form part of the contract.

Contractors are requested to bear in mind that tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms, and, in the case of firms, unless there are attached the actual signature, the nature of the occupation, and place of residence of each member of the firm.

An accepted bank cheque on a chartered Bank of Canada for the sum of $10,000, made payable to the order of the Minister of Railways and Canals, must accompany each tender, which sum will be clines entering into contract for the work at the rates stated in the offer submitted.

The cheque thus sent in will be returned to the respective contractors whose tenders are not accepted.

House of Commons a bill was brought in giving this needed right to the Dominion Railway Board, but the bill was laid over for a year and is no use for the immediate case. The city is not going to wait watil the act is passed, however. Acting Mayor Church says that nine residen-tial districts in the city have been cheapened by the nuisance. The districts he names are Rosedale, in the vicinity of the Don, Binscarth road, Boston avenue, Ward Seven all over, Dupont street and Parkdale. The chief of police has been instructed to take proceedings against the C.N.R. and the G.T.R., and the actions taken in the police court will amount to a
