

Double possibility—

Power of appointment, 746

Dower—

Assignment of—Time for ascertaining value, 476

Drunkenness—See* Murder.Dying declaration—

Sufficiency of, 672

Easement—

Not taxable—Extinction by tax sale, 205

Expropriation of, 497, 667

See Expropriation—Taxes, sale for—Vendor and purchaser.Editorials—

Lawyers and law reform—Ontario Bar Association, 1

Company law—Bond holders, creditors and provisional directors, 25

Anarchy—Newspaper lawlessness, 27

The moral responsibility of corporations, 57

Wife's right to independent advice, 61, 653

Defamers by trade, 63

Public confidence in public justice, 64

Socialistic sayings, 65

Hon. A. B. Morine, K.C.—Sketch, 97

John Morrison Gibson, K.C., Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, 98

Courts and their critics, 99.

Cancellation of treaty privileges to alien subjects, 101

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, 102

The law's delays, 117

Trial by newspaper, 118

Punishment by whipping, 119

What are the functions of a Provincial Legislature—The distinction between public and private purposes, 137

Ontario company law—Criticisms of existing Acts, 145, 220, 338

Changes in the Supreme Court Bench, 155

Judicial changes in England, 157

The Supreme Court and the nation, 177

New Rules of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, 186

The meaning of "adjoining," 187

Henry Hatton Strathy, K.C.—Sketch, 217, 759

The late Sir James Robert Gowan, K.C.M.G., 218

The evils and dangers of publicity, 231

Judicial appointments in England, 234

Sir James Whitney's invasion of the rights of municipalities, 257

Dominion legislation—Review of, 261

The unsatisfactory course of judicial decisions—Case law, 270

Negligence of servant temporarily transferred to another, 272

Notaries, their origin and office, 277

Scope of the power of the Dominion Government to disallow provincial statutes, 297

The South African Act of Union, 303

The late Herbert L. Dunn, 337