

alty under this Act, shall be brought except upon an order to that effect by or from the Minister of Militia.

Application of penalties.

99. The penalty when recovered shall forthwith be transmitted to the Adjutant General, who shall account for and pay it over to the Receiver General as part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Orders and notices need not be in writing if given in person.

100. It shall not be necessary that any order or notice under this Act be in writing, unless it is herein required that it shall be so, provided it be communicated to the person who is to obey or be bound by it in person, either directly by the Officer or person making or giving it, or by some other by his order.

General Orders, how notified.

101. All general orders of Militia, or other Militia Orders issued through or by the Adjutant General, shall be held to be sufficiently notified to all persons whom they may concern, by their insertion in the Canada Gazette.—And a copy of the said Gazette purporting to contain them shall be prima facie evidence for such orders.

Evidence.

Regimental or Battalion Orders, how notified.

102. All Orders made by the Officer commanding a Corps shall be held to be sufficiently notified to all persons whom it may concern, by their insertion in some newspaper published in the locality; or, if there be none, then by posting a copy thereof on the door of the church or of some court-house, mill, or other most public place in the Regimental Division.
