Clarke, deputy governor, to Popple. Sends account of what took place between the English and French in America. The events relate to 1682, 1686, 1688, 1690, 1693, 1694 and 1696, the taking and retaking of forts being very briefly given.

have all the territory in their possession, except a small fort called Nemikie.

sick and wounded, that having sent their report there is no longer any reason for the detention of de la Forest.

Clarke to Popple. Respecting the place called Nemikie, the French built a fort there to intercept the trade to the factories and by this means they, in 1686, took three of the factories at the bottom of the bay. In any treaty of peace with France, the French should not be allowed to travel or drive any trade beyond the midway betwixt Canada and Albany

Delagny to the commissioners for the exchange of prisoners (in French).
Complains that by the capitulation, de la Forest was to retain two cannon, receive the usual marks of honour, he and his garrison to retain their clothing and effects and be taken to Plaisance, but that the cannon had been retained, the clothes and effects pillaged and de la Forest and his garrison taken to England.

Report of the Privy Council on the dispute between the Hudson's Bay Company and the French. A summary of the evidence on both sides is given, concluding: "upon the whole matter there seems (sic) to arise these questions:

" 1st. Whether Capt. Allen had authority to Treat on the Two main articles insisted upon? And if Mons. La Forest can expect any benefit of the said articles if he had not? especially when Capt. Allen by one of his Letters to him says, that what he did therein was contrary to his Orders.

" 2. And whether the Articles of 1694 were so broken, as that Reprisals might be made by Your Majesty on this occasion out of the Goods now taken."
