Sir William Hearst said no one had a better right to sing the words of the doxology than the audience present that night. It was both an honor and pleasure to preside at such a gathering. The meeting was held under auspices of an organization noted for the patriotism and loyalty of its members, and for many benevolent works. Words of praise and commendation were due for the good works the organization was doing.

Now the conflict was over the allies would arrange such national combinations and lay down platforms of democracy as would prevent another such outbreak of hostilities.

There could be no meeting in Toronto this week without directing attention to the Canadian Victory Loan. It was vital that the loan be fully subscribed. In addition to requiring money to deal adequately with the needs of the returned soldiers it was necessary for Canada to be financially strong to meet the after war commerce conditions. If the Dominion Government were not thus prepared Canada might suffer a period of hard times.

Speaking of the work of the hospital board the supreme chief ranger said its function was to take care of Ford the way for a league of nations which were feared most, a German and truth when to anyone who dared disturb the peace of the world. Of course every city, town and district will earn its Honor Flag.

But how about the crowns?

For every twenty-five per cent. in excess of its quota, each city, town and district will be entitled to add a crown to its flag.

Can you do fifty per cent. better than your quota-that means two crowns for your Honor Flag.

But double your quota and it means four crowns.
