At no stage of the game were the Torontos in it, but at that they put up a much better game than most teams that appeared here this season. They fought hard till the finish of the game. Toronto scored the first goal, and after that St. Catharines set in to cinch the game. scoring five goals by excellent game, scoring five goals by excellent work by the home before the first quarter ended. With the game practically won St. Catharines let up and only at times tried to score, and was nearly always successful. The combination work and passing of the St. Vitte home was brilliant, while Hagan, Kitts home was brilliant, while Hagan, with his underhand shots was always deadly. The whole St. Kitts team were deadly. The whole St. Kitts team were all themselves. For Toronto F. Regan in goal was good. Francis was always on the spot, and little Johnny Powers played an excellent game, being a great help to defence and home alike. The game was clean thruout. Owing to wet weather the play was not as fast as usual, and the attendance small. The referee, J. Lally of Cornwall, gave universal satisfaction. The teams were: Toronto (3): Goal, H.
