Appeal of Outlawed Democrats To Soldiers and Sailors

Sacred Duty Not to Obey Commands of Illegal Government, But to Defend Parliament and Free Russia.

St. Petersburg, July 30.—The text of the appeal to the army and navy issued July 27 by the radical groups of the outlawed parliament, in conjunction with the central committees of the proletariat organizations is in part as follows:

"Soldiers and sailors, the government has by imperial command dissolved parliament and troops have been assembled from all sides to oppress the people by armed force. The people's representatives were elected from among your fathers and brothers in order to lay before the emperor the needs of the people and to obtain laws and liberty. But the emperor would not listen to the wishes of the people, he harkened to his former counsellors, the grand dukes, ministers and nobles, who did not want to give up their lands, their properties, their emoluments, and their irresponsible power.

"Russia is now divided into two parts. On one side is the vast majority—the peasants and workmen, all the poor and oppressed, the best educated and the most enlightened citizens, the soldiers who see the most clearly, the best officers and all the martyrs in the jails, including many thousands of soldiers and sailors. On the other side is a collection of oppressors, such as the nobles, the bourgeoisie and the Manchurian generals, who ran away from the Japanese, but who fired on the people at Moscow and Odessa and Tiflis, the government officials, the police spies and the whole black hundreds, and these rely on your strength to beat down the whole Russian people. Will you shoot the people, shed the blood of the people and transfix the people's breasts with bayonets? Remember that you are the children of peasants, that you are the children of the Russian people, and that at the same time in the villages where you were born your own brothers who are remaining some are also agitating, are also demanding land and liberty, and that the government is sending other troops to shoot them.

"Soldiers and sailors, we the legally elected representatives of the peasants and workmen, will call you to you that without parliament the government is illegal. Orders which we may now issue have no legal force. We call you to cease to obey the illegal government and actively to oppose it in conjunction with us, and the whole of the poor population. You have taken an oath to defend the fatherland. Stand beside us for land and liberty.

"Any man who shoots at the people is a criminal, a traitor and the enemy of the people. We inform all such, in the name of their fathers and brothers, that if they do not hang the eternal curse of the people.

"Soldiers and sailors, your sacred duty is to free the Russian people from the treacherous government and defend parliament. Every man falling in this holy war will cover himself with eternal fame, and the Russian people will bless his name. In this struggle your elected representatives will be with you. Be brave for the fatherland, for the people and for land and liberty against the criminal government."

DISORDERS AT WARSAW.

Panic Stricken Worshippers Crowd on Ferry, Which Sinks.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, July 30.—While the Church of Wilanow, a suburb of Warsaw, was filled with worshippers to-day an unknown person outside began firing rapidly with a revolver.

A panic followed, the church service was broken up and the congregation, in a wild effort to escape, crowded on board a ferry boat, which sank, drowning five persons.

The affair indicates the nervousness of the people. No day passes without tragic occurrences. In the city park on Saturday evening, July 28, a man fired into a crowd, killed one man and wounded four.

It is officially announced that the loss resulting from the robbery of the Warsaw-Vienna train, between Czestochowa and Herby, July 28, amounts to $86,000.

MARKED MEN.

Ekaterrinoslav, Russia, July 30.—There is very little agitation among the workmen in this industrial district, but the leaders thus far have succeeded in organizing a strike.

Diamond Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Madill of Toronto.

Surrounded by their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, under a gaily decorated marquee, on the lawn of the residence, at 525 Ontario-street, Mr. and Mrs. James Madill, formerly of Whitby, yesterday afternoon celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding.

The invited guests were Rev. Dr. John Abraham and Mrs. Abraham, Mrs. Hunt and Miss MacKay of Whitby, Rev. Dr. Turnbull and Dr. G. B. Smith, for twenty-five years the family physician. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Madill, the only survivors of the original wedding.

At the breakfast table were, besides the bride and groom, six sons and one daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Madill of Syracuse, son and daughter, and two grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. John Madill of St. Catharines and four children; Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Madill of Toronto and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. William Madill of Peterboro, and son, Mr. and Mrs. children, and Mr. James Madill of Toronto; one daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) George Gadsby, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Marjette, Ohio.

The toast to the ancient bridegroom and bride was responded to by Mr. Jas. Madill sr. in an interesting review of his life. He told, amid the blushes of the bride, and much to the amusement of the guests, how courtship, love and marriage were carried on sixty years ago. Instead of an automobile, the wedding party drove in a lumber wagon drawn by team of oxen.

He and Mrs. Madill had been brought up together in Ireland. As a child he came to Canada with his parents and settled in Pickering in 1837, and in 1875 Mrs. Madill, whose maiden name was Finney, settled in Manvers. Rev. Mr. Lambie of the "aid kirk" performed the ceremony in 1846.

An amusing feature of the courtship was the antipathy of the bride's mother to her marriage to young Madill. She liked the young man, but was anxious that he should take one of the two elder daughters.

In 1873 Mr. and Mrs. Madill moved to Whitby, where they lived until about 1880, when they moved to Toronto, where they lived with their son, James, on Ontario-street.

CHARLES COULD NOT SWIM, DROWNED AT DUFFERIN DOCK

Foxley Street Young Man Went for Fatal Night Bath—Body Not Recovered.

William Charles, plasterer, aged 21, living with his parents at 22 Foxley-street, was drowned at the exhibition dock, foot of Dufferin-street, at about 10 o'clock last night. Up to 3 a.m. the body had not been recovered, although the man's friends, with Park Commissioner Chambers and a corps of assistants, made diligent search.

Charles, who could not swim, was in the habit of going with companions to the dock at the foot of Dufferin-street, after dark to bathe. A rafter running around the wharf, about a foot out of the water, was used by the younger boys as a "hang on." Charles climbed down the ladder and for a time pushed and pulled himself around in the water. The rafter was held on, but a companion at his hand grabbed him and helped him back, warning him on no occasion to let go again. The water is about 8 feet deep.

Preparing to take a dive from the top of the wharf, Bert Holmes noticed Charles had again let go his hold, and he shouted to his companions, and Charles and Stewart immediately dived. Charles came to the surface once, but before the pair, who were expert swimmers, could reach him, he sank in the dark. He was not seen again.

Help was immediately summoned, and every effort was made to locate the body.

The victim's father, W. H. Charles, a well-known contractor, and his mother, who in poor health when notified, of the fatality, went immediately to the dock to assist in the search.

MONTREAL HARBOR BOARD VIOLATES ALIEN LABOR ACT

Finced $100 by Recorder Weir for Importing a Shovel to Work in Elevator.

Montreal, July 30.—(Special.)—Recorder Weir rendered judgment to-day condemning the harbor commissioners of Montreal to pay a fine of $100 in the case in which they are charged by Pierre Robitoux with a violation of the alien labor law.

The case, which has passed thru many stages in legal argument, was based upon the employment of two laborers in the United States by Jeremiah Nehin, superintendent of elevators.

The court held that the law was violated in inducing a man named Quinlan to come to Montreal from Ogdensburg in August, 1904, to work as a shovel tender, and also in the employment of a man named Barry, who came from Buffalo, N.Y., in May, 1904.

In giving judgment the court said: "Defendants urge that the proof shows Quinlan and Barry to be skilled workmen engaged for a new industry of Toronto, and that they do not agree with this view. Grain elevators are not new to Canada, and shovel-tending can scarcely be called an operation requiring any very special skill. I condemn defendants in respect only of the charge of illegally importing Barry here."

Young Men of Liberal Party Would Cast Off the Old Ideas

Public Ownership of Public Utilities and of the Liquor Traffic the Program of Progressive Section—Suggest Convention if Ross Goes to Senate.

Public ownership of public utilities and of the liquor traffic, is the platform of the younger element in the Liberal party puts forward as reorganization groundwork.

T. C. Robinette, K.C., whose devotion to the cause of Liberalism no one will dispute, speaking to The World, and commenting on the assumed retirement of Mr. Ross to the senate, said last night that the new leader of the party in Ontario must be a man who is prepared to take advanced ground in politics.

"The new leader must be a strong man," said Mr. Robinette. "He must have no entangling alliances, and his first thought must be of the welfare of the people as distinguished from the party."

Mr. Robinette believes in public ownership of public utilities and is even prepared to go further in a power policy than Premier Whitney. He is radical enough to espouse public ownership of the liquor traffic, and there are many other intelligent socialists who do not see the objection.

"If a convention of the party is called," said Mr. Robinette, "and I think one should be called soon as Mr. Ross announces his retirement, the young element of the party will be heard, and should the old leaders oppose their views a warm time will ensue." He is firm in the belief that the tried and broken reeds of the party will not be strong enough to reorganize on progressive lines.

In many Liberal quarters the name of N. W. Rowell, K.C., is not seriously associated with the leadership of the party.

In truth, the party is advertising for a man to lead it.

GLASGOW WELL PLEASED WITH CIVIC OWNERSHIP

Glasgow, July 30.—For the year ending May 31, the gross receipts of the Glasgow tramways were $4,200,000. The cost of operation and maintenance was $2,250,000; $800,000 was set aside for depreciation of plant, etc., leaving a balance between the gross receipts, expenditure and the deposit for depreciation of plant, of $1,150,000.

Part of the profits earned by the municipal ownership and operation of tramways—$175,000—was set aside for the fund for the "common good." This fund is now used by the city authorities for all sorts of purposes expressed by the phrase "the common good."

Glasgow will never again permit the city's public utilities to be gobbled up by financial sharks.

Peterboro, July 30.—Ewart G. Jupp of Toronto, who had just come to Stony Lake on Saturday night to spend Sunday with his friend, Dr. Wilson, also of Toronto, was drowned last night while bathing.

Jupp was in swimming in the evening, just off Crow's Landing, where the shore inclines abruptly and where the water is very deep. He took cramps and before assistance could arrive went to the bottom. His body was recovered shortly afterwards and taken to Norwood. Jupp was a young Englishman who had spent two years in Canada.

When Jupp was seen to be in distress Miss Mary Nicol rowed hastily to his rescue, but he sank when she was only a few feet away. Dr. Wilson worked for two hours to revive him, but as he had been under water for 30 minutes, the efforts were without avail. The body will be sent to his home in England.

MOTHER THINKS DOCTORS MIGHT HAVE SAVED BOY

Lad With Lockjaw is in Very Serious Condition in Hospital—Mrs. Grogan's Story.

Young James Grogan now lies in a most critical condition at St. Michael's Hospital as the result of an attack of tetanus. At midnight he was in convulsions.

His mother, Mrs. Mary Grogan, called at The World office yesterday and made a denial of the statement that the lockjaw from which her son is suffering is the result of his having cut his foot on a broken window-pane while she was absent from home at work.

She denies, also, that he was locked in the room in which he lay at the time. She complains that there seems to be a disposition to place blame on her, which she thinks should be borne elsewhere.

Her version of the unfortunate case is that her son, who was employed by A. T. Heron, a butcher doing business at 281 Church-street, was thrown from his employer's wagon at the corner of Bloor and Huntley-streets and received painful injuries to his left hand thru a horse stepping on his thumb. This was on Tuesday, July 17, about 11:30 o'clock in the morning.

WENT TO DR. BOYD.

When the nature of his injuries was noted the boy was taken to the nearby office of Dr. Geoffrey Boyd, at 167 East Bloor-street, where the wound was dressed. He was told to come back on Thursday to have the wound again dressed, but during the night the pain became so intense that his mother telephoned the doctor, thru a neighboring druggist, and on the physician's order the latter gave her some pellets, which she administered. During greater part of Wednesday the boy remained in bed, and on Thursday went to Dr. Boyd's office as he had been requested to do on the day of the accident.

WENT TO DR. GUINANE.

After examining the injured member, the mother alleges, the doctor told her son that the treatment necessary would cost more than he would be able to pay, and that he had better go to St. Michael's Hospital. The doctor, however, gave no order, and fearing to present himself at the hospital the youth instead went to his employer, impressed with the seriousness of the case the latter sent him to his family physician, Dr. Joachim Guinane of 104 Wilton-avenue, who at the same time agreeing to bear medical expenses to the extent of $3.50 per week, also those of an operation should this prove necessary. Dr. Guinane took the steps necessary to secure admission to the hospital, and on Friday the suffering boy went to St. Michael's. From then until the following Thursday he remained there, having his wound dressed daily, but without undergoing the amputation which the mother now alleges might have been beneficial had it been done soon enough.

Dr. Boyd's "Think It Serious."

On Thursday, feeling better, the boy came home, but that night complained of a sore throat and difficulty in opening his mouth. Simple remedies were
