On the other hand, some poor ones, who are, after all, often the best students, feel that they simply are not in it from the start, so they neglect their appearance and appear absolutely frumpy.

Neither mistake is necessary. To avoid either, all a girl need do is to pay a visit to Toronto, or the nearest arge town, a few weeks before "school" starts, or else make a careful selection of goods and patterns from a reliable firm's catalog, and so acquire a passable wardrobe with but little outlay.

To find out the truth of the matter, The World called on Mr. Fred Ryan of the Parkdale Roller Rink. Mr. Ryan is recognized as an expert in the business, and his opinion will go a long way to settle the question.

"There is no reason under the sun," said Mr. Ryan, "why roller skating should not be as popular in Toronto 20 years from now as it is at present. Roller skating is a healthy pastime as well as a most fascinating one. There is always something new to learn in the graceful art, and it's a pleasure that one never gets tired of.

"The reason why roller rinks have had to close in Toronto, as in other places, is because they were not properly conducted. And for the same reason, the Parkdale Rink has always had crowded houses, as the saying is since it was opened two years ago.
