In Class A, Burns & Sheppard's handsome pacer, Riley B. (2.054), won nandily without ever being headed, and in the second heat he set a new matine record for the season by stepping the half-mile in 1.07½. The well-known reinsman, Jack Fleming, was up behind the gelding and handled him skilfully.

In Class C. Jos. Russell's recent purchase, the trotter Charley B., was a straight-heat winner, being at no time in danger of losing.

As the Toronto Driving Club limit the number of heats in their matinees to three, the spectators had to leave the track undecided as to which was the better horse in Class D, the final race of the day.

John E. Russell's big pacer, Reservation, made his appearance with the hobbles on, landing the opening heat of the race, and when he had wnat looked like a winning lead in the second heat, made a bad break, which gave Wm. Hezzlewood the opportunity of slipping in with Bourbon Boy.

In the third heat, Charle Snow got his little mare, Rheda Wilkes, away boiling, taking the pole at the first turn, and led thruout, winning by an open length from Reservation, who came fast thru the stretch, but could not get up in time to beat Snow's mare.

A curious thing happened in the Class C race at the Toronto Driving Club's matinee yesterday. When the horses came out for the third heat, they scored matinee vesterday. When the horses came out for the third heat, they scored down in line, and went away of their own accord, as Starter McBride was not in the stand.
