IN MEMORIAM. KENNY-In loving memory of J. Kenny, who died Sept. 10, 1915. All that is mine of earth's treasures, All that to me doth remain

All that to me doth remain,
Freely I'd give for the pleasure
Only to have thee again,
Sadly the days come and go, Jack,
All life's sweet pleasures are vain
None other joy can I know, JackOnly to see thee again.

b
—Wife and Family. WALKER-In loving memory of Pte. James Walker, 2nd Battallon (for-merly of the 33rd), who fell on the battlefields of France, September 9,

We little thought when we said good-That we parted forever-and you were to die;
The grief that we felt words cannot tell,
For we could not be with you to bid you farewell.
You nolly answered your duty's call.
You gave your life for one and all;
But—the unknown is the bitterest blow— None but an aching heart can know.
