Peace Conference Is Anxiously Awaiting Decision of British War Department As To W ithdrawal of Troops From the Caucasus Mountains District.

Paris, Aug. 14.—The peace conference is awaiting anxiously the decision of Great Britain as to the withdrawal of British troops from the Caucasus, which it is expected will begin to move homeward tomorrow.

Colonel William Haskell, U.S.A., Allied high commissioner in Armenia, has telegraphed the supreme council that Armenia undoubtedly will starve, and the people be exterminated if the British soldiers are not detained there until others are sent. The supreme council, however, is unable to provide troops. None of the large powers is willing to send soldiers there, and consequently no action has been taken.

Action Is Taken in Accordance With Demands Made by the Members of Peace Conference.

Amsterdam, Aug. 14.—Rumanian troops are about to leave Budapest in accordance with the note sent to Rumania by the peace conference, according to a wireless dispatch received here from Vienna, quoting newspapers of that city:

"There are 250,000 workmen in Budapest who are only waiting for the Rumanians to leave Hungary to immediately take the situation into their own bands, which means the return to Bolshevism. The Hungarian Government cannot depend upon the Entente powers for assistance, for those powers have withdrawn all their troops from Russia, and American is unwilling to send a single soldier.

"The only grudge the Entente has against us is that we refuse to have British and American capital dominate Rumania," the communication says.

New York Herald Regards the Appointment As Compliment to U.S.

London, Aug. 14.-Viscount Grey's acceptance of the appointment of temporary British ambassador to the United States is given warm approval by the press here, which eulogizes his public services, and for the most part regards his appointment as excellent. There is, however, dissatisfied criticism in some quarters, not on the ground of Viscount Grey's fitness or his acceptability to America, but because of the enormous responsibilities attaching to the post at this moment. Doubt is expressed with the naming of a temporary ambassador for this reason.

The Daily News severely scores the government for making an "emergency apointment," adding: "To choose a statesman who for more than two years has been out of touch with active political life is, to say the least, a singular proceeding."

The Post, which is an opponent of Viscount Grey, politically, nevertheless assumes that America will regard his appointment as a compilment, as he is a notable Englishman. orary British ambassador to the
