LATE LOCALS

All the city fire department teams were out early this morning breaking the roads.

The Allan line steamship Sardinian is about due from Havre and London via Halifax.

C. P. R. steamship Empress of Ireland is due at Halifax at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The ordination and induction of the five elders recently chosen for St. David's church will take place at the morning service, Sunday.

The Temple of Honor will parade to Main street Baptist church Sunday morning to hear an address by John H. Roberts the temperance orator.

Furness line steamship Rappahannock Captain George Buckingham will sail tonight at 8 o'clock for London via Halifax with a general cargo.

Allan line steamship Granplan, Captain Outram, sailed this morning at 9:45 o'clock for Halifax and Liverpool with five saloon, nine second cabin, and 80 steerage passengers.

Thorne Lodge L. O. G. T. held a very enjoyable social in the vestry of Tabernacle church last evening. During the evening music was furnished by St. Mary's orchestra.

Owing to the inclement weather yesterday morning's session of the Epworth League Institute was abandoned. Meetings were held in the afternoon and evening in Centenary church, and a number of interesting papers were read.

C. P. R. steamship Montrose, Captain Moore, which was detained from going to sea yesterday by the heavy storm, got away this morning, bound for London and Antwerp.

The death of John Early, aged 88, took place at Boston last Wednesday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. F. J. Bagwell. He was a former resident of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis C. Purdy, of 280 Main street, was called on Thursday night to suffer the loss of their nine months old child, Darrel J., after a brief illness of pneumonia. They will have the sympathy of many friends.

John Burns, an Englishman, was the solitary occupant of the prisoners' bench at the opening of the police court session this morning. He pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness and was fined $4 or ten days in jail.

During the provincial campaign the R. L. Borden club will have its headquarters in the Palmer building, where suitable rooms have been secured and nicely fitted up. A meeting of the club will be held in the morning on Tuesday evening next.

Three cars of merchandise from the ill-fated C. P. R. steamer Mount Temple arrived by the I. C. R. this morning. The goods, most of which are consigned to western farmers, will be unloaded and sorted here. The greater portion of the merchandise from the Mount Temple will be forwarded in this way.

Would you like to secure a cottage lot on the St. John river for an investment of $25? The plan of The Prince's Beach Company is to give away this month, six large lots valued at $400. Read the ad. today on page 5. Study the January number and see if you cannot supply a line that will win a prize. You also have a chance to win a prize. You also have a chance to win a prize. You also have a chance to win a prize.

Rockwood Section J. T. of H. and T. will meet this evening in the vestry of Tabernacle church. Rockwood section is doing great work in that part of the city. It was organized late in July, with eight members, and now has a membership of thirty-two. The boys have been successful in obtaining the services of Miss A. Parker as second assistant governor and as a result of the efforts of a "Fifty Club," organized in this section, they are gradually gaining ground. It is expected they will more than double their present membership by spring.

EVERY DAY CLUB DEBATE

At the Every Day Club hall last evening the debate: Resolved, that a spendthrift is a more desirable member of a community than a miser, was won by the affirmative, argued by Messrs. Witterlin, Cocher, Tins and Cormier, and opposed by Messrs. Sheppard, Humbert, McLaughlin and Belding. The judges were Messrs. Arthur Leary, Harry Olmstead and Chas. A. Jones. Despite the storm there was a large attendance, including a number of ladies. The relative merits of city and country life will be debated next Thursday night, the leaders being Messrs. Cormier and Cocher.

THE LATE WM. J. WHITE

The body of Wm. J. White, who died on the 24th, as the result of an injury to his back at Sand Point, was forwarded to Newfoundland, his former home, today. The remains have been lying in N. W. Brennan & Son's undertaking rooms and were arterially embalmed by them. There were many beautiful floral offerings, among the number being a large crescent from the associations in Carnarvon street Methodist church, of which the deceased was an active worker. His Sunday school class sent a sheaf of wheat. Accompanying the casket were the deceased's wife and children, who will remain in Newfoundland, and his brother, F. V. White, who came over from the island colony.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Epworth League Institute sessions were resumed in Centenary church this morning when the attendance was rather small. Rev. S. T. Bartlett conducted a conference on Sunday school work, and E. R. Macdonald delivered an address on Teacher Training, pointing out the importance of the work and the demands being made upon that department. The meetings will be continued this afternoon and evening.

DAHOMÉ HAD ROUGH TRIP

West Indian Steamer Badly Iced Up and Sailors Frost-bitten.

The West India steamer Dahomé, Captain Gort, arrived at noon today from Bermuda and other southern ports. Captain Gort reports one of the roughest passages he ever experienced. For the last two or three days it had been blowing and snowing from the northeast. The ship arrived off Partridge Island last night and the land could not be sighted there being so much vapor on the water and blowing a gale from the north-west. After the weather moderated some this morning signals were displayed from the station on the island for a steamer that wanted a pilot. Later on a pilot managed to get on board and brought the Dahomé into port. The vessel is dreadfully iced up, and the officers and crew had a very severe time, some of the men were slightly frost bitten. The steamer is now at the Corporation Pier.

There are tons and tons of ice on the Dahomé's decks. All the way up from Bermuda the trip was very rough, the hardest part of the voyage was met with in the past few days.

The following is the list of her cabin passengers: Captain Wheeler, Brigadier Turner of the Salvation Army, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Davidson, Mrs. Hall and Miss Scott, and one third cabin. The Dahomé also had a very rough trip going into Bermuda from the Windward Islands. The ship has on board a large freight for this port and Halifax.

The Dahomé was off Partridge Island at 11 o'clock last night but owing to the rough weather was unable to make an anchorage until early this morning.

J. S. EWART, K. C., TO SPEAK TO THE CANADIAN CLUB

He Will Address Them on Wednesday Next on Lessons from the Imperial Conference.

The Canadian Club has found it necessary to change the date of its annual meeting. The luncheon will be held on Wednesday evening at 6.15, instead of Tuesday. A quorum of the club will meet, however, on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the board of trade rooms, and formally adjourn to meet again on Wednesday evening.

The speaker at the luncheon will be the eminent jurist and author, J. S. Ewart, of Ottawa, who will speak on Lessons from the Imperial Conference. After the address the club will hear reports and elect officers for the ensuing year.

BORING FOR WATER

Street Railway Company Will Sink an Artesian Well in Their Nelson St. Warehouse.

The St. John Railway Company is having an artesian well bored in their warehouse on Nelson street, so as to be independent of the city water supply should another break occur. The boring has been going on night and day and a depth of 24 feet has been reached up to the present time. In the first stage of the boring operations a hole about 8 inches in diameter was started and now a 6 inch hole is being made. It is not known how far the borings will extend, but it is anticipated that a depth of 1,000 feet will be reached before they cease.

THE CAVANAUGH CASE
HEARD THIS MORNING

Preliminary hearing in the case against sixteen-year-old Frank Cavanaugh of St. Patrick street, who was arrested Wednesday on suspicion of stealing from the Victoria Rink, an overcoat and a pair of boots valued at not less than $10.50, the property of Frank Killen was begun this morning before Judge Ritchie and after several witnesses were examined the prisoner was remanded until tomorrow or Monday, in order to secure two more witnesses.

The evidence showed that the prisoner had taken young Killen's overcoat from the dressing room of Victoria Rink last Wednesday morning when he appeared to be under the influence of liquor; also, that the coat and boots, which were identified as such by the owner were found this morning on top of a shed just back of Mitchell's bakery, Brussels street. The location of the overcoat and boots is due to the efforts of Sergt. James Campbell, who in company with Lawrence McAlister, secured the missing property this morning.

SMALLPOX AT CAMPBELLTON

(Campbellton Graphic, Wednesday.) Harvey Mahood came out from the halfway camp on the Kedgewick on Tuesday last and put up at the residence of Miss Rodgeron, corner of Prince William street. For several days he complained of feeling unwell and yesterday it developed that he had smallpox of a very mild type. The residential portion of the Jameson building was at once quarantined and every precaution taken to prevent the spread of the disease. Yesterday afternoon an emergency meeting of the board of health was called and the patient ordered to be sent to the post house. He was taken there yesterday afternoon. Wm. Tope was engaged by the board of health as nurse and caretaker. Yesterday afternoon all the inmates in the Jameson building were vaccinated. Mr. Malcolm moved about but very little since his arrival here.

A NEW LIMERICK

The novel limerick contest to be conducted by The Prince's Beach Company offers opportunity to secure a desirable lot for a summer home on the St. John river. The lots are at Harding's and Sand Point, two of the most beautiful spots on the river, and the prizes offered are unusually attractive. Everyone should read the advertisement in today's issue and then investigate the offer.
