The daughter is Mrs. Duncan, of Belmont, Mass., with whom Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were living at the time of the former's death. J. H. Rogers, of Moncton, is a near relative.

THE SUPREME FACULTY

Eyesight is the faculty above all others which we can least afford to lose. One who cannot see is infinitely worse off than those who cannot hear, smell, taste, or feel.

Eyesight may be called the "controlling faculty" because the other senses depend so much upon it.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Mrs. Robert J. Ross occurred under sorrowful circumstances on Wednesday at her home in Brookville, made particularly pathetic because of the old child, William Ronald, who passed away on last Saturday after a brief illness.

Ald. John A. Reid, of Fredericton, received a telegram Thursday announcing the death of his brother's wife, Mrs. James Reid, in Montreal. She was fifty years of age and is survived by her husband and one daughter.

Samuel T. Rogers, a former well known resident of Moncton, died in a suburb of Boston on Wednesday. Mr. Rogers, who was a retired I. C. R. veteran, was a very prominent member of the I. O. O. F. and was a past grand master of the maritime provinces. He worked for a great many years in the absence of her husband with the first I. C. R. shops in Moncton. He is survived by his wife, three sons and one daughter. The sons are, George and Orton, resident in Boston, and Frank in the United States navy. The daughter is Mrs. Duncan, of Belmont, Mass., with whom Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were living at the time of the former's death. J. H. Rogers, of Moncton, is a near relative.
