FLORENCEVILLE BOY DIES AS CLOTHES BURN

Nightdress Catches Fire as He Plays With Lighted Match FLORENCEVILLE, N. B., Sept. 13.—George McCain, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude McCain, of Florenceville, was so critically burned when his nightdress caught on fire from a lighted match on Friday evening that he succumbed on Saturday. It was announced from here last night.

MATCH IGNITES NIGHTIE

George was in the kitchen with his mother and had just got into his nightgown of shaker flannel when the crying of his baby sister in an upstairs room attracted his mother's attention and he went to see what was the mat-ter. She had hardly left the room when George got hold of some matches and lighted one. The match fell on his nightgown and in a second it was ablaze. The little fellow screamed out in terror and his mother sped to his assistance, but short as the time was before she reached the kitchen she found the boy in a pitiable plight. Medical aid was summoned at once and a sec-ond doctor was called from Woodstock to consult with the local physician, but nothing could be done to save the child's life.
