CALCUTTATAR IS ALSO LIFE-SAVER

Warship Brings Record of Brave Deed Performed
By Stoker Welch.

"Hats off to the Stoker."

This time it is Stoker Welch of His Majesty's Ship "Calcutta." The port with Vice-Admiral Sir James A. Fergusson, K.C.B., C.M.G., R.N., on board. Last week it was Able Seaman Kyle of H.M.S. "Hastings" who saved the life of a young nurse who had fallen into the harbor between the warship and wharf.

Stoker Welch turned the trick at Bar Harbor, Me., last week. The version of his prompt and effective deed as given by one of the officers on board and in newspaper reports is that while at a swimming pool at Mount Pleasant a man named Marten fell beyond his depth and cried out for help. There was no one near him at the time but when Stoker Welch heard the cry for help, he ran to the other end and jumped in, clothes and all, and grasped the drowning man as he was going down for the second time. The man gave the bluejacket plenty of trouble and it was with difficulty both were rescued. The eye witnesses present praised Welch's action greatly and made it their business to inform the officers on the "Calcutta" of Stoker Welch's excellent work. Apparently, it is part of the day's work in the British Navy to save the lives of people who get into difficulties in the water. The stoker, a modest young fellow, was warmly commended for his part in the matter.

Members of the ship's crew will be very busy today. This afternoon while the public is allowed to inspect the flagship, several of the officers will journey out to the Riverside Golf and Country Club for a round on the links as guests of the club. The cricket team of the ship is playing the local team this afternoon and this evening the "Calcutta's" strong soccer team will meet the picked team from the local soccer league. Tonight also, the concert party of the ship under the direction of Lieutenant Swinley and Lieutenant Wiggett will give a concert in the Seamen's Institute. The "Calcutta's" performers are rated as among the best in the squadron and are bound to attract a large number to hear their programme, the proceeds of which will be divided equally between the Navy League and the Lady Byng camp at Fair Vale. Among the "Calcutta's" two popular lieutenants named, and Sergeant Major Jones. Tomorrow, the Vice-Admiral will hold an at-home on board ship when specially invited guests will be present.

S. WHITEBONE DEAD IN HALIFAX

For Many Years Conducted a Cigar Store in St.
John.

Many friends in this city will be with regret of the death of Samuel Whitebone, formerly of St. John, which occurred last week in Halifax, after a brief illness. Mr. Whitebone was a native of Amsterdam, Holland, but came to this country when a boy, with his brother Jacob. Both were well known here. Jacob died in 1917.

For many years Samuel Whitebone conducted a cigar store in the market building, and many citizens purchased their supply of the soothing weed from him and came to know and respect him. About 20 years ago he removed to Halifax, but made frequent visits to the city. He travelled out to Halifax for some years after moving to the sister city, but a few years ago was appointed on the staff of the immigration department.

He is survived by one son, William, and one daughter, Mattie, both in New York. The funeral was held on Sunday at Halifax.

CHANGES AT ST. PETER'S CHURCH

Rev. James Cloran C. S. S. R., rector of St. Peter's church, announced today that Brother Norbert, who had been stationed at St. Peter's for some years, has been transferred to Moncton, where he will likely leave for his new field tomorrow. While stationed at St. Peter's church he made many friends who will regret to learn of his departure.

Rev. Francis Hill C. S. S. R., is also to leave tomorrow for Quebec where he will make his second novitiate. Father Hill is one of the popular young priests of the parish and his many friends will be pleased to learn that he probably will return to St. Peter's church at the conclusion of the novitiate.

Rev. Edward Meehan C. S. S. R. and Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan C. S. S. R. are expected to join the staff of St. Peter's church in the near future. Father Meehan was stationed at Brandon and was transferred to this city. Father O'Sullivan was attached to the Redemptorist parish in Edmonton. The former is to take over parish work and the latter will be attached to the mission band.

STILL UNSETTLED.

A case against Samuel Jacobson, who was reported last week for peddling a baking compound from door to door, was resumed in the Police Court this morning. He had been ordered on his previous appearance to go to City Hall and endeavor to have his case adjusted by the City Chamberlain by procuring a license and the right to sell his goods. He reported this morning that he had been unable to secure a license as he was not of age. The case was then set aside and will be resumed at a later date.

ENGAGEMENT.

James C. Wright wishes to announce the engagement of his third youngest daughter, Florence L., to Henry S. Winfield of Portland, Maine, the marriage to take place in the near future.

MORGAN YACHT VISITS ST. JOHN

Private Ship of New York
Banker Comes Into Harbor Here.

The million-dollar private yacht of J. Pierpont Morgan, famous United States banker, here from St. Andrews, N. B., and Bar Harbor, Me., dropped anchor in the harbor at 7.30 o'clock last evening and was to leave again this afternoon for Digby and Halifax, N. S. The multi-millionaire banker was not on board, being in England at present on business, but Hon. Herbert L. Satterlee, formerly connected with the United States Navy Department, Mrs. Satterlee and family are on the "Corsair," which is commanded by Captain W. B. Porter. Captain Porter said the cruise might be extended during the war. For joining his magnificent yacht, Mr. Morgan received the sum of $1 a month. She was badly damaged during the war and it cost her owner a small fortune to repair her. She carries a crew of 45 men and is handsomely appointed throughout. The yacht can make 18 knots an hour under pressure, but her cruising speed is 12 knots an hour. She draws 16.4 feet of water.

The yacht attracted considerable attention along the waterfront today, her graceful lines arousing much favorable comment. Last evening, she was ablaze with light from stern to stern, presenting a brilliant picture.

MANY AWAY ON THE BOSTON BOAT

Among the passengers who sailed for Boston this morning on the Eastern Steamship liner Governor Dingley was Florence Marshall, who is a member of the cast of "Trial Honeymoon," a musical comedy, which is due to open a long engagement in Chicago in the near future. She was accompanied by her mother, wife of Dr. E. Marshall of Boston, and had been spending a vacation with Mrs. George Waring, West St. John.

Other passengers who sailed on the liner were: Miss Helen Hammond, a registered nurse of Cambridge Hospital, who was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kerrison; Mrs. E. B. Humphrey, who is returning to her home in Vermont after a visit to sister, Mrs. L. D. Munro, 223 Douglas avenue; Miss Mary H. Holland and Miss Edith Snow, who are returning to their homes in Boston after spending a few days with Miss Holland's aunt, Mrs. W. G. Smith, Princess street. These two young ladies recently arrived in Yarmouth and went on a hike through Nova Scotia.

The Governor Dingley took away approximately 180 passengers and a fair sized general cargo. More passengers and additional freight were awaiting the steamer at Eastport and Lubec.

The Saturday night sail of the Governor Dingley direct for Boston has practically been booked up and from present indications every Saturday night sailing until early in September will be heavy. The Friday evening sailings of the steamship Prince Arthur are also expected to be heavy and there is a steady call for accommodation from people in all parts of the Maritime Provinces.

TRAVELED FAR

Four Year Old East St. John Child Found In Carleton.

To be missing from her home in Edith Avenue, East St. John, and to be found in Queen Square, West St. John, was the experience of little four-year-old Rena McCrossin. Yesterday her mother notified the city police that she was missing and it was thought that she might have got on a street car and not been noticed by the conductor. Instructions were sent out to the policemen to be on the lookout for her, and one of the patrolmen in West St. John found her in Queen Square. The police are unable to figure out how she could have worked her way on the cars all that distance without attracting attention. In order to get to Queen Square she would have to transfer at least twice. As soon as she was found her mother was notified and she was soon back under her care.

As Hiram Sees It

"It looks," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeak to The Times reporter, "as if old England might be some more trouble in Ireland." "It does look like that," said the reporter. "Looks as if she's got to be some trouble with Egypt, too," said Hiram. "The situation is rather bad," said the reporter. "There are Arabs is makin' a kick again her, too," said Hiram. "Quite so," said the reporter. "The's always some fuss in India, too," said Hiram. "It is chronic," said the reporter. "Well, sir," said Hiram, "when I think of them big fliers settin' there in London—with a map of the world in front of 'em—steele'n pins in the places where trouble's brewin'—an' then fingerin' out how to satisfy everybody without things goin' to smash—an' when I think how well they've done considerin' the different kinds of people they hed to deal with—I want to take off my hat to Old John Bull—yes, sir, He's the daddy of 'em all—By, Hen!"
