POLICE SEARCHING FOR LIQUOR CARGO

Tug Owner Arrested and Warrants Out for Several Others—Perjury Charged.

(Toronto Mail and Empire)
John R. Moore, owner of the tug of that name, is in custody, and warrants have been issued for the arrest of three members of the boat's crew in connection with the disappearance of 400 cases of whiskey consigned from the distillery at Belleville to Mexico, and loaded upon the tug, presumably for shipment to Rochester, en route to its destination in the South. Moore was arrested at Port Stanley and brought to Toronto on Saturday, while the others will be picked up at any hour.

The owner of the tug has three charges standing against him: perjury in connection with a statement made to the customs officials; breach of the Liquor Transportation Act, generally known as the Sundry Bill, and conspiracy to commit a breach of the Liquor Transportation Act. The other three men concerned will be charged, according to Provincial officials, with conspiracy, and with a breach of the Liquor Transportation Act.

The facts as known to the police are that the tug John R. Moore left Belleville about a month ago with 400 cases of liquor, consigned to Mexico via the United States. About ten days or two weeks ago the tug entered Toronto Harbor, and on attempting to leave, was held up by the authorities for not having reported entering the port, and for not having clearance papers from Rochester, where, according to the Belleville clearance papers, the cargo was to be unloaded. The captain and owner is stated to have claimed that he unloaded his cargo to a launch outside the port of Rochester and that he had entered Toronto Harbor because of engine trouble.

The charges by the Provincial police against Moore are the result of investigations conducted into the reports that a large quantity of liquor was unloaded at the foot of Jarvis street from a tug and taken away. This liquor, the police have since been tracing, but with little success.

GUNMAN HOLDS UP AND ROBS BUTCHER
Locked Victim in Refrigerator, Then Got Away with $195 in Cash.

(Toronto Mail and Empire)
Poking a gun into the stomach of Frank Mercer, butcher, 1439 Dundas Street, West, a lone gunman, about 3.30 Saturday morning, forced Mercer into a refrigerator, locked him in, then helped himself to $195. Mercer was released by two lads who entered the store after the gunman had left.

According to the story told by Mercer, he was in the rear of the store, making up Friday's cash for the bank, when a man entered the store, made his way to the rear, and seeing Mercer counting his receipts, remarked, "That's what I'm after," indicating the cash. He had a revolver in his hand, as he poked into Mercer's stomach, as he backed the butcher into the refrigerator. When he was sure the gunman had left, Mercer pounded on the door of the ice-box, and was freed by the two boys. Mercer lives at 103 Morrison Avenue.

The police are inclined to believe that Mercer's assailant was the same man that called at A. Gallagher's cigar store, 1,400 Dundas Street, west, just across the street from the Mercer store, and asked the price of certain cigars in a show-case. Gallagher was suspicious of the man, and got rid of him as quickly as he could.

It is probable that the Conservative will ask a recount, and the Liberals are talking of protesting the election. Previous to polling day Mr. McCombe wrote the chief revising officer, complaining of about three hundred names being improperly omitted from the list and stating he would protest if the majority against him were less than 80.

Close in West Calgary.
Calgary, Dec. 21.—J. T. Shaw, independent candidate in West Calgary riding, had a net lead of one vote over Ho R. B. Bennett, minister of justice, in the recount proceedings today before Judge Kenora constituency was concluded yesterday. The figures were announced as counted out of a total of ninety-eight.
