Brother-in-law of Senator Dandurand Not Expected to Live

Montreal, Dec. 5.—L. Sicotte, retired customs official and brother-in-law of Senator Dandurand, suffered a fractured skull and Miss Squires sustained a crushed collar bone and severe internal injuries, while another woman was slightly injured when two automobiles collided at the corner of Mountain and Dorchester streets yesterday, Mr. Sicotte is in the Western Hospital, where it is said there is little hope of his recovery. The occupants of the cars were allowed out on parole, after arrest; having promised to attend the court if any of the victims died.

CANADIAN WHISKY POPULAR IN JAPAN

Ottawa, Dec. 5.—Dominion Trade Commissioner Bryan reports from Yokohama that Japanese imports from Canada during the first six months of 1919 fell away about one-third as compared with the same period in 1918, owing to the decreased imports of paper pulp. It is noted that Japan has nearly doubled her imports of whisky since 1917 and that Canadian whisky is a favorite beverage of the Japanese people. A British Columbia brewing company has invaded the country and is constructing a large brewery plant "at a point between Yokohama and Tokio."
