J. A. Adams has been awarded a contract for the renovation and building of the Kings County (Brooklyn) American Red Cross. This unit is the largest that has sailed from New York, numbering 110 nurses.

HAS ARRIVED IN FRANCE.
A cablegram received by E. L. Small, announces the safe arrival in France of his daughter, Mary, who is attached to the Kings County (Brooklyn) American Red Cross. This unit is the largest that has sailed from New York, numbering 110 nurses.

CHIMPAN HILL LEAK.
A leaking water main at the head of Chimpman Hill started a small flood yesterday and a gang from the water sewerage department was out at work early this morning to locate the source of the trouble. The leak had not been located at noon.

COURTNEY BAY PLANS.
The visit of J. B. Craven and his associates in the St. John Dry Dock and Shipbuilding Company to this city has been postponed again. It is understood that Mr. Craven is in Ottawa and may be here later in the week. So far neither the city nor the county has decided to fix a date for a conference with regard to financial assistance for the dry dock and shipbuilding project.

HOME FROM OTTAWA
S. E. Elkin, M. P., accompanied by Mrs. Elkin, arrived in St. John last evening on his return from Ottawa. The trip was made in Mr. Elkin's car and the route was via New York and Boston. Hon. F. B. Carvell, Mrs. Carvell and Mrs. Fisher accompanied them as far as Portland. Hon. Mr. Carvell has returned to Ottawa but may be in St. John next week.

RETURNING TO DUTY.
Captain Gerald Fanning, who has been enjoying a furlough home, left last evening to report to Ottawa. He is going via the United States and has accepted an invitation to spend a day at a military camp near Ayer, Mass., where some of his former associates at Harvard University are located. His future plans are uncertain. He has had the offer of several posts on this side of the water.

THE WAR GARDENS.
The fine weather of yesterday gave the amateur gardeners a great opportunity to get in good work and it is safe to say the greater production campaign received quite a stimulus by the general observance of the holiday. On the city lots, Manawagonish road, much work was accomplished. Fifty persons were counted at one time working on the lots, which are now showing good form. The crops are several weeks ahead of last year.

THE LATE MRS. MELVIN.
Of the late Mrs. G. G. Melvin of St. John the Sackville Tribune says: As a girl Mrs. Melvin resided for some years in Point de Bute with her uncle and aunt, the late Mr. and Mrs. Angus McQueen. She had many relatives and friends in Westmorland, who will hear of her death with sincere regret. Among the first cousins in Sackville are Mrs. J. L. Dixon, Angus M. Arvid and C. Fred Arvid.

GEORGE J. McLEAN HERE

June Brides of St. John

Connors-McCormick.
A very pretty wedding took place this morning at 7.10 o'clock in Holy Trinity church, when Very Rev. J. J. Walsh, V. G., united in marriage, with Nuptial Mass, Miss Margaret Edna McCormick, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCormick, to Bernard Connors, of Black's Harbor. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a suit of blue and tan satin with georgette cape hat to match and a peach fox fur. She was attended by Miss Laura Connors, sister of the groom, who was aided in green tulle with hat to match. The groom was supported by James McGowan. Little Miss Margaret Gulliver, cousin of the bride, made a dainty flower girl. She carried a basket teeming with cut flowers, which were strewn in the path of the bride. After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, 288 City Road, after which Mr. and Mrs. Connors left by automobile for their home in Black's Harbor, where the groom is a member of the Connors Bros. firm. Many beautiful presents testified to the popularity of the young couple.

McLaughlin-Murphy.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's church this morning when Miss Mary Teresa Murphy, daughter of John J. and the late Margaret Murphy of Lynn, Mass., became the bride of Leo B. McLaughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McLaughlin of 984 Main street. Nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. William McLaughlin, C.S.S.R., of St. Patrick's church, Quebec, who is a brother of the groom. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis Healey, C.S.S.R. Owing to a recent illness of his bride, who was unable to be present at the wedding, she was given away by her aunt, Mrs. M. D. Sweeney. She wore a beautiful dress of navy blue silk with grey crepe-de-chene hat and a lynx tupe, and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. The witnesses were Charles Glynn, cousin of the groom, and Miss Helen Murphy, sister of the bride.

Following the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's aunt, 288 Douglas avenue. Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin later left on a honeymoon trip to Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa. Returning they will reside at 288 Douglas avenue.

Their popularity was attested by a large and magnificent assortment of gifts, including cut glass, silver and furniture. Among these were a beautiful silver service from the staff of the post office where the groom is a popular employee, and beautiful and useful remembrances from the individual members of the firm of T. Rankine & Sons, Limited, with whom the bride was employed as a member of the office staff, and also a substantial check from the firm.

Goss-Maxwell.
An interesting event was solemnized this afternoon at the bride's home, 385 Union street, when Miss Vera Thoreson, youngest daughter of Mrs. Pamela T. and the late Hon. Robert Maxwell, was united in marriage to Arthur Ernest Goss. The bride is one of the popular young ladies of this city. The groom is a son of Captain and Mrs. A. Millar Goss, and is employed by the Imperial Board of Munitions, Campbellton.

The house was prettily decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Goodwin, pastor of Centenary church, in the presence of immediate relatives. The bride was given away by her brother, Charles T. Maxwell. The wedding march was played by Miss Amber Freed. Miss Maxwell wore a grey chiffon tulle suit, pink hat and white fox fur, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony a war luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Goss will leave on a trip through the maritime provinces. They will reside in Campbellton.

Many beautiful presents of cut glass, silver, etc., were received which testify to their popularity. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Maxwell, Mrs. A. Millar Goss and Miss Goss, Toronto.

FAIRVILLE PERFORMERS GIVE PLAY AT GRAND BAY

A four-act play, "Hearts and Diamonds," put on by young people of the Church of the Good Shepherd congregation, Fairville, in their own church hall a few weeks ago with such success, was repeated last evening at Grand Bay before a capacity audience, and the work of the amateurs throughout received the heartiest applause.

Rev. W. B. Robinson of West St. John, spoke briefly in announcing the play, making reference to the work entailed in putting it on and the sacrifice of the young people in giving up the holiday.

The cast was the same as at the earlier performance and all handled the roles most creditably.

Special mention should be made of the work of Mrs. Dunlap and Mrs. C. B. McKel, who accompanied the young people and helped greatly to make the play the success it proved to be. The work of G. G. Bay was also kind in loaning furniture, etc., and the stage was well set for the several scenes. The amount raised last evening will be donated entirely to the Red Cross.

Arthur Doherty sang several Scotch songs which were greatly enjoyed.

DOG DAY

Magistrate Ritchie announced in court this morning that Friday would be dog day. He said one complaint had reached him that no fewer than twenty-two dogs had been running about a citizen's yard.
