The 55th annual convention of the Protestant Association of the Prentice Boys of America was opened in Prentice Boys' Hall, Guilford street, West Saint John, this forenoon, with 104 delegates present under the presidency of D. J. Bannon, of Toronto, Senior Deputy Grand Master, who assumed the chair by automatic promotion because of the death of Grand Master L. E. Rolston, of Saint John, who died last autumn.

TOUCHING TRIBUTE
Aside from the registration of delegates, a greeting from Past Grand Master R. J. Anderson, on behalf of King Edward Lodge, the outstanding matter of interest at today's opening session was the touching reference to the death of Grand Master Rolston by the grand deputy, who paid a glowing tribute to the Christian character, British loyalty and indefatigable energy of the late Saint John citizen on behalf of the Prentice Boys and their precepts. The local character of Mr. Bannon's remarks greatly stirred the emotions of the Saint John men, amongst whom their late leader was greatly beloved.

Tonight His Worship Mayor Potts will extend a civic welcome to the Grand Lodge delegates, and routine business will be continued until a late hour. This will be concluded with a lobster boil on Taylor's Island, Mahogany Beach.

As Hiram Sees It

The odor of apple blossoms was in the air. The descending sun glowed in the west, and the tinkling of cowbells came from the hillside pasture. On the hillside Mrs. Hiram Hornbeam gently rocked and stitched. "Your hands," said the Times reporter, "are never idle." "Not when I'm awake," said Mrs. Hornbeam. "If I had to set and fold my hands I'd call it a punishment. I'm never so happy when I can see something 'shapin' under my hands. Don't you feel that way when you're writin' a story?" "If it's a well-doctored yarn at somebody's expense," broke in Hiram, "I bet he does." "I leave you in mind as the hero of my next," said the reporter. "He'd be mad if you didn't," said Mrs. Hornbeam. "Hiram does love to get into the papers." "Who's name was in last—in that there Women's Institute report?" demanded Hiram—Mrs. Hiram Hornbeam poured. "As long as the printer didn't make it say I poured I won't complain," said Mrs. Hornbeam. "She means," explained Hiram to the reporter, "that she aint one o' the old cats." "Are there old cats?" asked the reporter. "You'd say so if you heard 'em," said Hiram. "Yes, sir—you would so."

Rabinovitch Not in Court and Magistrate Dismisses
Inquiry

Telegram Says B. Friedman Ill
in New York and Could Not Come to Testify.

After traveling more than 1,800 miles to face a charge brought against them by Harry Rabinovitch, formerly of Winnipeg and now of Montreal, for conspiracy to defraud, the two brothers, Leon and Myer Chechik, will leave this afternoon on their return journey to Winnipeg. The inquiry against them being dismissed by Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning when Rabinovitch failed to show up to go on with the case.

TELEGRAM COMES.

Arthur N. Carter of Baxter, Lewin, Carter & Hutton, appearing for Rabinovitch, read a telegram from B. Friedman, New York, saying he was very sick and would be unable to attend the hearing today and as he was a former partner in the liquor transactions over which the disputes have arisen and therefore an important witness, a request was made to postpone the inquiry until Mr. Friedman could be present. His Honor said he could not do that as the two defendants had been put to a great deal of trouble and anxiety and also in view of the fact no doctor's certificate respecting Mr. Friedman's illness was forthcoming. He said he would therefore dismiss the inquiry.

TO HAVE 2 COURTS

East Saint John Tennis Club
Expanding and is Providing For Growth.

At a special meeting of the East Saint John Lawn Tennis Club last night it was decided to build a double court as the membership was growing, and it was felt by the majority that a single court was not sufficient. These courts will be built of clay over ground leased from the United Church. The church trustees were in favor and promised to aid the tennis club all they could. The club will still play on the court they hold now, use of which was given by Mr. James Foley gratis. A strong committee was appointed to look after the courts to be built and is composed of Bert Jowleson, Wm. Woodroffe and F. D. Fenwick. A move is on foot for a drive for new members. The dues were advanced to $3 entrance fee for new members and old members. It was necessary to obtain funds and the club intends to put on a dance within two weeks, also for the raising of funds for the new courts.
