

5. No person shall be convicted of any offence under this Act upon the evidence of one witness, unless such witness be corroborated in some material particular, by evidence implicating the accused.

6. In every case arising under this Act the defendant shall be a competent witness in his own behalf upon any charge or complaint against him.

7. No prosecution under this Act shall be commenced after the expiration of one year from the time of committing the offence.

8. Any person convicted of any offence declared to be a misdemeanor under this Act, shall be liable to imprisonment for two years in a penitentiary, or for a less term in any other place of confinement, in the discretion of the court having jurisdiction.
