Ottawa, September 22, 1943.

Major D. M. MacKay, Indian Commissioner for British Columbia,
Vancouver, British Columbia.

I am enclosing herewith correspondence that has been received from the General Superintendent of Indian Agencies at Regina with regard to the case of Edward Stonechild, an Indian soldier who was recently charged with murder.

I should be obliged if you would take up the question of the British Columbia Liquor Permit with the appropriate Provincial Authorities and advise me with regard thereto in due course.

Kindly let me have your report in duplicate.
