pencefully conducted strike against a company that has broken its agree meat with its employees. The press reports felating the fact that pution officials had been greeted and blood shed had almost taken place gave the impression to the average reader that the mine workers had resorted to violent methods. As a matter of fact, as related by the Labor News cor-feepondent, the strike has been most pecefully conducted and the arrest of a mice official apparently was the result of the activities of a newly appointed and over-zealous J.P. It is gratifying to learn that the
