Thirty years study and experiment have been given to perfecting the formula for Parsons' Pills, and the universal judgment of the highest medical authorities, scientists, and men of learning, is that our formula is the best yet devised by the brain of man, and-should rank with the wonderful discoveries of the world. No family should be without them, for there is no other remedy in the world capable of conferring so much benefit, excepting, possibly Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. The information contained in the wrapper around each box is Journation's Anodyne Limment. The information contained in the wrapper around second worth ten times the cost of a box of pills; it shows how to avoid and how to cure all man ner of diseases, and how to correctly interpret the symptoms thereof. Sold everywhere, sent by mail for 25 cents in stamps. A valuable illustrated medical book sent free to a who send their address.

The New Bonnet. A foolish little maiden
Bought a foolish little bonnet,
With a ribbon, and a feather,
And a bit of lace upon it;
And that the other maidens
Of the little town might know it,
She thought she'd go to meeting
The next Sunday just to show it.

But though the little bonnet
Was scarce larger than a dime,
The getting of it settled
Proved to be a work of time;
So when 'twas fairly tied, all
The bells had stepped their ringing,
And when she came to meeting.
Sure enough, the folks were singing. So this fosish little maiden
Stood and waited at the door;
And she shook her ruffles out behind
And smoothed them dewn before,
"Halleulyn! halleulyn! "
Sang the choir above her head,
"Hardly knew you! I mardly knew you!"
Were the words she thought they said.

This made the little maiden feel This made the little mades feel So very, very cross, That she gave her little mouth a twist, Her little head a toss: For she thought the very hymn they sang Was all about her bounet, With the ribboa, and the feather, And the bit of lace upon it.

And she would not wait to listen
To the sermon or the prayer,
But pattered down the silent street
And hurried up the stair,
Till she reached her little bureau,
And in a band-box on it
Had hidden safe from critic's eye
Her foolish little bonnet. Which proves, my little maidens,
That each of you will find
In every Sabbath service
But an echo of your mind:
And the silly little head that's filled
With silly little airs
Will never get a blessing
From sermon or from prayers.
