

ST. JOHN STAR.

VOL. 6, NO. 49.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1905.

ONE CENT

Coal Hods

Will soon be in great demand. We have them

Black or Galvanized, with Funnel or Plain mouth.

FIRE SHOVELS, COAL VASES.
W. H. THORNE & CO., Limited,
Market Square, St. John, N. B.

Silence is Often Eloquent

But "SILENTS" must be talked about. Every man, woman and child must know what they miss in life if they do not use

Eddy's "Silent" Parlor Match.
SCHOFIELD BROS.,
SELLING AGENTS. ST. JOHN, N. B.

How to Earn Money

If you would call on or write C. H. Davis at Prince Wm. St., St. John, N. B., send the names of your friends or other reliable persons that I could sell any of the following articles to, as Watches of all kinds, Diamonds, Brooches and Pins, Ladies' and Gent's Gold and Set Rings, Waist Sets, Cut Studs or any kind of Jewelry or Clocks of any kind, or Silver Knives, Forks, Spoons, Tea Sets, Butter Dishes, Cake Baskets, or Silverware of any kind, I would pay you in cash as soon as the sale was made. I would also give honest and reliable persons credit of three and four months. All business strictly confidential. Any one writing to me and opening an account will also get a discount off my regular prices. All goods fully warranted.

Autumn Millinery Opening!

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.
Our millinery openings are eagerly looked forward to by the women of St. John. The latest Paris and London ideas will be shown here. Hats from our own workroom from $10.00 to $15.00. Also ostrich feathers, wings, quills, velvet collars, roses, chenilles, silk braids, ornaments, etc.
Our special in Hat Department will be poles, high back turbans in black and colors.

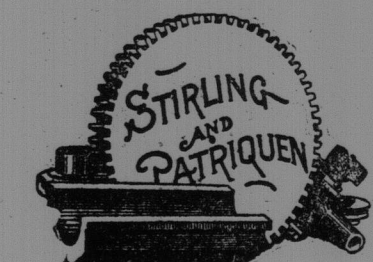

S. Romanoff, 695 Main St., North End.

Now Is The Time

to have your Stoves and Furnaces put in order and avoid the rush later.
We have competent men and can attend to your orders promptly. Satisfaction guaranteed.

J. E. WILSON, Ltd.

Office and Sheet Metal Works: 17 and 19 Sydney St. Foundry: 170 to 190 Brussels St.

Brass Founders,
Machinists,
Copper Workers,

PHONE 1011. No. 38 and 40 WATER ST

If You Work

Outside in winter, you will need be particular about the kind of boots you wear. Our Men's Hand-Made, Grain Blucher Boots, plain toe, with heavy Tap Soles at $2.25 are the very best goods made.

Waterbury & Rising,
King Street. Union Street.

Open till 8 tonight. St. John, N. B., November 5th, 1905.

Men's Tailoring.

Attractive Cloths, Makes and Prices.

There is so much that can be said in favor of having your tailoring done here, that this space is entirely too small, but if you'll come and examine our Cloths, the trimmings and the prices you'll easily see a great advantage in ordering here. We guarantee every garment we make.

Men's Suits to measure ...$12.00 to $35.00
Men's Overcoats to measure 15.00 to 26.00
Men's Pants to measure .....3.50 to 7.50

J. N. HARVEY, Men's and Boys' Clothier
109 and 207 Union St

R. W. BARBER SWEARS
TO FORGERY CHARGE.

Says J. F. Thompson Forged His Name to Notes.

He Was On the Stand in Police Court This Morning—The Accused Released on $2,400 Bail.

The case against J. H. Thompson, charged by R. W. Barber with forgery, was commenced at the police court this morning before Judge Ritchie. Hon. H. A. McKewen and Burton J. Gerow appeared for the prosecution and D. Mullin, K. C., for the prisoner. H. R. Barber was on the stand all morning. He said he had been in the city fourteen months as a salesman and manager for Hugh H. Thompson, of Leesburg, Virginia, selling cash registers and fire-proof safes. Mr. Thompson is cashier in the National Bank at Leesburg. He furnished the capital to run the business, made the purchases, sent them to witnesses who disposed of them through agents. He covered the Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland. He had as many as eighteen agents on the road. The purchases were made on a monthly payment plan and when paid on this plan the purchases were required to give promissory notes. The notes came to the St. John office made payable to Mr. Thompson, but for the past few months have been made payable to witness. Witness last saw Hugh H. Thompson during the first week in October, at Leesburg, Virginia, when he was there on matters of business with the company. H. R. Barber, the accused, is a brother of Hugh H. Thompson. He came here in February and left in June and returned again, five or six weeks ago. When Mr. Thompson arrived he started in keeping the books and continued in the office until Tuesday, October 24, when witness and he had a little difficulty and Thompson left.

On the day he left he and the witness had a talk about a promissory note of Mr. McKewen. While in Virginia witness saw notes endorsed with his name on them to make them negotiable. The notes were payable to witness. Among other notes was one from Mr. McCurran, who lives outside of Montreal.

Mr. Mullin here objected to the evidence unless the note was produced. Continuing, witness said he asked the accused why he had endorsed these notes and he said his brother wanted the notes and he thought it all right to sign his (witness's) name on the back. Witness saw the note last May.

Mr. Mullin objected to him saying that he saw a note—the note being here.

Mr. McKewen said that McCurran was away and would not be home until Tuesday when the note would probably be brought in evidence, and if not, he would go with the case to the court.

Mr. Mullin thought the case could not go on until the note was produced. It was shown to be a forgery. The witness was allowed to resume and continuing said that while in Virginia he looked over a lot of notes and saw his name on more than a dozen in J. H. Thompson's handwriting.

Thompson went to Newfoundland in July and before that witness told him that he had no authority to sign his name on notes without power of attorney. He asked witness for that power and was refused. The defendant was only given power of attorney to sign witness's name in Newfoundland. The notes of the notes with witness's endorsement forged on them had come through the St. John office.

To Mr. Mullin the witness said his native place was in the South. Before coming to St. John he was in business in Bangor. The cash registers and safes are H. A. Thompson's property. Since March or April last the business was done on account of taxation. Witness would endorse and forward notes to Leesburg and if not collectible in the banks they were sent back to witness for collection. Prior to June 1904 witness was in Newfoundland for three weeks. Before going to Newfoundland witness gave defendant orders to sign his (witness's) name to notes, in type-writing, and sign his own name under it.

Witness did not tell defendant to go ahead and sign his name without power of attorney. Witness returned from Newfoundland the latter part of May and found a good stack of notes awaiting his signatures, and found some missing, and asked where they were. Defendant said he had signed witness's name and sent notes to his brother. Thompson waited until the month was up and left for home. There would be an average of about 30 or 50 notes a day. Once in August there were so many notes he had to put them in two envelopes. Witness had returned to St. John in October from Leesburg and it was a fortnight afterwards before he spoke about notes being signed by defendant. When away witness was not aware of any shortages. The reason he did not say anything to Mr. Thompson when he first returned to St. John in October was that then everything was satisfactory. There was no money to do business with here, and getting discouraged witness went hunting and on return found another man in his place. It was then that he brought up about J. H. Thompson endorsing the notes and forging his name. This was one reason, then another was that he wished to get out of the business, and another reason was that he was in business money sent from Leesburg to do business. He was mad when he returned from the hunting trip, but would not swear that he did not say to Thompson, "You are up against it good and hard for forgery."

To Mr. McKewen witness said that he was to get half the profits of business. Witness had gone to Leesburg

6,000 KILLED AND WOUNDED IN ODESSA.

Riots Were Instigated By Police and Bureaucrats--Pathetic Scenes When Political Prisoners Were Released.

ODESSA, Nov. 6.—(12:31 p. m.)—The town is quiet today. It is now estimated that the killed and wounded during the recent riots here numbered six thousand. The city hospital alone contains two thousand wounded. NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—A special dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Times says that the recent outrages at Tomsk and Tver and especially those at Odessa are to be investigated. There can be no longer the slightest doubt that in the main the revolutionaries must not be blamed for the disturbances which were instigated by the police. The police at Moscow are openly organizing attacks against the liberals and the metropolitan has ordered that hooligans be read in the churches with the same object. The new procurator of the holy synod, the liberal Prince Olenyok, has already taken steps to stop this disgraceful proceeding. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 6.—Many touching scenes were witnessed yesterday, when the political prisoners who have been kept in solitary confinement were released. A great concourse gathered looking for loved ones, who vanished years ago and whose whereabouts were unknown, but only four were recognized. Disappointed women waiting for sons, husbands or brothers, broke down and wept. A man named Pralenko and a comrade, who said they had spent over 20 years in prison, came out with long white beards. They know practically nothing about what has occurred during their long imprisonment. Sasnett, the murderer of Interior Minister Von Plehve, Peter Karpovich, the assassin of Minister of Public Instruction Bogoloff Gerolinski, the chief of the terrorist conspiracy and other terrorists were not released. A large body of prisoners released from other prisons later visited public meetings and related their experiences. TOMSK, Siberia, Nov. 6.—The troops today were forced to charge with bayonets against a mob which was pillaging Jewish houses. A number were killed and many were wounded. The city is half sacked. ELIZABETHPOL, Caucasus, Nov. 6.—The Muscovite population have organized manifestations in honor of the imperial constitutional manifesto. The orators called on the population to cease all national hatred. HELSINKI, Nov. 6.—The imperial manifesto meeting most of the demands of the Finns arrived here last night. The constitutionalists are satisfied and the socialists, who threatened to make a demonstration, have thus far been quiet.

(Continued on Page 7.)

WM. J. LEMOYNE, THE VETERAN ACTOR, DEAD.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—William J. Lemoine, the veteran actor, died at the home of a friend in Engwood-on-Hudson, this morning. Death was due to a brain disease which became acute two weeks ago and had followed an attack of heart trouble which was five years of age and sixty years of his life was spent on the stage. At the time of his retirement he was playing an important role in support of James K. Hackett in "Don Caesar's Return" at the Wilkes's theatre. He made his first theatrical appearance in Portland, Me., in "The Lady of Lyons" in a company which included Mrs. Edwin Forrest. He subsequently appeared in the company of Booth, Forrest and Fechter. He appeared in many Shakespearean productions and during his career played every role in Hamlet save the title role.

Lemoine was born in Boston and when the civil war broke out enlisted in the 2nd Massachusetts volunteers of which he later became captain. He was wounded at South Mountain and compelled to retire. MRS. E. R. MACHUM DEAD. The death occurred this morning of Lella R., wife of E. R. Machum, of St. John. She was in her 44th year. She had two sisters living, Mrs. R. W. Grimmer, of St. Stephen, and Miss Nellie Harrison, of Woodstock. She is survived by her husband and three children, Ronald, Elva and Marion.

Baron de Coriolis, of Montreal, is at the Royal. Miss Mary E. Knowlton leaves tonight for Brooklyn, where she will lecture before the Institute of Art. The fact that Miss Knowlton has been asked to lecture before this institution is very complimentary to this great young family. Mrs. Machum, who was the daughter of the late Thomas A. Harrison, of St. John, was in her 44th year. She had two sisters living, Mrs. R. W. Grimmer, of St. Stephen, and Miss Nellie Harrison, of Woodstock. She is survived by her husband and three children, Ronald, Elva and Marion.

At last evening's service Rev. F. S. Bamford, pastor of the Ludlow street Baptist church, West End, preached a strong sermon on the sins of social life, drunkenness and immorality. The speaker took his text from Proverbs 1:19-21. Speaking of the evils of the evil of the great American cities, he quoted Eleanor Barnes, a writer in the Boston Herald, whose letters to the young people of that city have awakened considerable interest. He also mentioned the New York theatre where an indecent play was forbidden to go on. Continuing the speaker said that to abolish these evils the tap must be stopped, so to speak, and those in authority must be of clean and sound morals. A large audience was present.

Capt. Pratt, of the government fishery protection cruiser "Cormorant" and in the city today at noon from St. Stephen, where the Curlew is at present. Capt. Pratt says he has had a busy season and does not expect to place his steamer in winter quarters till probably the middle of December. His present visit will be but a very brief one.

OTHER CLERGYMEN
ENDORSE MR. COHOE.

His Resignation Discussed by Evangelical Alliance.

Another Minister May Follow His Example—His Declaration Concerning City Churches Generally Agreed to.

The meeting of the Evangelical Alliance this morning was not very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Howard was in the chair. Rev. Mr. Pritchard, secretary of the alliance, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Prosser who is in Nova Scotia. The others present were Rev. Mr. Hamilton, Rev. Dr. Gates, Rev. David Lang, Rev. Dr. Fotheringham, Rev. Dr. Raymond, Rev. Mr. Bamford, Rev. Mr. Foster, Rev. Dr. Sprague, Rev. Mr. Berrie (Woodstock), Rev. H. R. Reed, Rev. F. T. Snell of London, Eng., Rev. R. W. Ferguson, Rev. Mr. Kuhling sent his regrets that he could not be present. Before the meeting an informal discussion took place on Rev. Mr. Cohoe's resignation. One minister expressed his opinion that there were six or seven churches in the city which were not in any better position than that of Brussels street Baptist. Another minister said that if the ministers of St. John were to state their firm convictions against a mob which was pillaging Jewish houses, a number were killed and many were wounded. The city is half sacked. ELIZABETHPOL, Caucasus, Nov. 6.—The Muscovite population have organized manifestations in honor of the imperial constitutional manifesto. The orators called on the population to cease all national hatred. HELSINKI, Nov. 6.—The imperial manifesto meeting most of the demands of the Finns arrived here last night. The constitutionalists are satisfied and the socialists, who threatened to make a demonstration, have thus far been quiet.

(Continued on Page 7.)

Rev. Mr. Bamford, who was present at a meeting said that while in Boston he had seen Spencer Walton of the Andrew Murray South African Mission. The reverend gentleman thought arrangements should be made to bring Mr. Walton here in March. A number of the ministers here favored the idea. The idea would be to conduct daily meetings for a week.

Rev. Dr. Raymond gave an interesting address of 15 minutes on "Thoughts on Preaching." The reverend gentleman claimed that ideas were the world's heritage and though one can quote thoughts extensively from another, the borrowed ideas should be credited to their originator. He said that he did not consider that the power of the pulpit was declining. Rev. Dr. Fotheringham moved a vote of thanks which was seconded by Rev. Dr. Gates.

Rev. Dr. Gates said that he would like to have the opinion of the Alliance upon one of the points brought up by Rev. Dr. Raymond, namely whether the minister should preach upon the questions of the day, such questions as the corruption in politics, should the great moral problem be discussed such as the liquor traffic? Drink, he thinks, is gaining ground. It is getting control of more and more of the young men of this country.

Rev. Mr. Pritchard was in favor of more frequent meetings of the Alliance. There is a lot of work which is left over every meeting. He suggested that this be taken in consideration.

Rev. Mr. Foster thought that for the continuity of the work at the Industrial Home one minister should have charge. He thought that some slight remuneration should be given Rev. Dr. Raymond thought an appeal should be made to the Sunday schools for contributions for this work. No permanent arrangement was made but Rev. Mr. Pritchard will conduct the work during the next month.

Rev. Dr. Sprague moved that the ministers ask the Sunday schools to make such contributions. Rev. Mr. Foster seconded this and suggested that one minister from each denomination be appointed. Rev. Mr. Howard for the Methodists, Rev. Mr. Foster for the Presbyterians, Rev. Mr. Bamford for the Baptists and Rev. Dr. Raymond for the Episcopalians. The meeting then adjourned.

POLICE COURT.

This morning at the police court one ordinary drunk left a deposit of eight dollars and two others were fined eight each.

Win. Hanley, charged with lurking in alleys near the corner of Gorman and Horsfield streets and with tapping on windows was remanded. Policeman Ward, who made the arrest, said he had been called to the vicinity three times Saturday night on account of Hanley's actions. Hanley said that he had been tapping on the windows for a girl.

Policemen Gosline and Lee made a raid on Lizzie McCordick's house on St. James street, West End, Saturday night and arrested her on the charge of keeping a bawdy house, also Kate Douglas, James McMillin and Wm. woman, house in the same street. The McCordick woman was allowed to go to a room for a cloak and made her escape. The other three prisoners were remanded and the police are looking for the keeper of the house.

Wm. Hanley, charged with lurking in alleys near the corner of Gorman and Horsfield streets and with tapping on windows was remanded. Policeman Ward, who made the arrest, said he had been called to the vicinity three times Saturday night on account of Hanley's actions. Hanley said that he had been tapping on the windows for a girl.

Policemen Gosline and Lee made a raid on Lizzie McCordick's house on St. James street, West End, Saturday night and arrested her on the charge of keeping a bawdy house, also Kate Douglas, James McMillin and Wm. woman, house in the same street. The McCordick woman was allowed to go to a room for a cloak and made her escape. The other three prisoners were remanded and the police are looking for the keeper of the house.

Wm. Hanley, charged with lurking in alleys near the corner of Gorman and Horsfield streets and with tapping on windows was remanded. Policeman Ward, who made the arrest, said he had been called to the vicinity three times Saturday night on account of Hanley's actions. Hanley said that he had been tapping on the windows for a girl.

Policemen Gosline and Lee made a raid on Lizzie McCordick's house on St. James street, West End, Saturday night and arrested her on the charge of keeping a bawdy house, also Kate Douglas, James McMillin and Wm. woman, house in the same street. The McCordick woman was allowed to go to a room for a cloak and made her escape. The other three prisoners were remanded and the police are looking for the keeper of the house.

Wm. Hanley, charged with lurking in alleys near the corner of Gorman and Horsfield streets and with tapping on windows was remanded. Policeman Ward, who made the arrest, said he had been called to the vicinity three times Saturday night on account of Hanley's actions. Hanley said that he had been tapping on the windows for a girl.

Policemen Gosline and Lee made a raid on Lizzie McCordick's house on St. James street, West End, Saturday night and arrested her on the charge of keeping a bawdy house, also Kate Douglas, James McMillin and Wm. woman, house in the same street. The McCordick woman was allowed to go to a room for a cloak and made her escape. The other three prisoners were remanded and the police are looking for the keeper of the house.

Wm. Hanley, charged with lurking in alleys near the corner of Gorman and Horsfield streets and with tapping on windows was remanded. Policeman Ward, who made the arrest, said he had been called to the vicinity three times Saturday night on account of Hanley's actions. Hanley said that he had been tapping on the windows for a girl.

Policemen Gosline and Lee made a raid on Lizzie McCordick's house on St. James street, West End, Saturday night and arrested her on the charge of keeping a bawdy house, also Kate Douglas, James McMillin and Wm. woman, house in the same street. The McCordick woman was allowed to go to a room for a cloak and made her escape. The other three prisoners were remanded and the police are looking for the keeper of the house.

Wm. Hanley, charged with lurking in alleys near the corner of Gorman and Horsfield streets and with tapping on windows was remanded. Policeman Ward, who made the arrest, said he had been called to the vicinity three times Saturday night on account of Hanley's actions. Hanley said that he had been tapping on the windows for a girl.

Policemen Gosline and Lee made a raid on Lizzie McCordick's house on St. James street, West End, Saturday night and arrested her on the charge of keeping a bawdy house, also Kate Douglas, James McMillin and Wm. woman, house in the same street. The McCordick woman was allowed to go to a room for a cloak and made her escape. The other three prisoners were remanded and the police are looking for the keeper of the house.

Wm. Hanley, charged with lurking in alleys near the corner of Gorman and Horsfield streets and with tapping on windows was remanded. Policeman Ward, who made the arrest, said he had been called to the vicinity three times Saturday night on account of Hanley's actions. Hanley said that he had been tapping on the windows for a girl.

Policemen Gosline and Lee made a raid on Lizzie McCordick's house on St. James street, West End, Saturday night and arrested her on the charge of keeping a bawdy house, also Kate Douglas, James McMillin and Wm. woman, house in the same street. The McCordick woman was allowed to go to a room for a cloak and made her escape. The other three prisoners were remanded and the police are looking for the keeper of the house.

Wm. Hanley, charged with lurking in alleys near the corner of Gorman and Horsfield streets and with tapping on windows was remanded. Policeman Ward, who made the arrest, said he had been called to the vicinity three times Saturday night on account of Hanley's actions. Hanley said that he had been tapping on the windows for a girl.

Policemen Gosline and Lee made a raid on Lizzie McCordick's house on St. James street, West End, Saturday night and arrested her on the charge of keeping a bawdy house, also Kate Douglas, James McMillin and Wm. woman, house in the same street. The McCordick woman was allowed to go to a room for a cloak and made her escape. The other three prisoners were remanded and the police are looking for the keeper of the house.

Weather—Rain tonight with strong east to south winds. Tuesday, strong winds and gales, south to west, rain.

PRINCE LOUIS' VISIT
A POLITICAL ISSUE.

Anglophobe Cry in New York Civic Campaign.

Heard is Raising It—His Chances are improving—Tammany Afraid—Some Will Be Elected.

(Special to the Star.) NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Generally speaking the visit of the British fleet under the command of His Serene Highness Prince Louis of Battenberg is looked forward to with pleasure in this city, but there is an anti-British element led by Mayorality Candidate Hearst—the yellowest of yellow journalists, whom his fellow democratic congressmen, Bourke Cockran, has referred to as the "promoter of assassination" (the reference being to the assassination of President McKinley) who is standing upon a platform of "anarchy, disorder, riot and ruin," which resents the visit and denounces Mayor McClellan for having arranged to use city funds for the entertainment of the officers, and also denounces the men of the United States navy for raising a fund to be spent in giving the British tars a good time. It is safe to predict, however that in the highest social circles as well as in the Tenderloin and on the Bowery the visiting officers and men will be given a warm reception and made to feel that "blood is thicker than water."

(Continued on Page 5.)

DRUNKEN ITALIAN MURDERS TWO.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Andrew Ingan was shot and instantly killed in a fight in a tenement house on Canal street, Ignace Pomerleau was probably fatally wounded. The police have sent out a general for the arrest of Tony Mort of the same address. He is charged by T. Shipley, who lives in the house, with doing the shooting.

Shipley was detained as a witness. He told the police that Mort had been drinking. When he came home he found the two other men were talking, and thinking that they were talking about him he ordered them to stop. They laughed at him, whereupon he ran upstairs to his room, secured his revolver and began to shoot. The first bullet went through Ignace's heart. Three other bullets found lodgement in Pomerleau.

The last bullet passed within an inch of Shipley's head. Mort then fled to the street, and meeting two policemen, said "There's a man shot upstairs." The men involved are laborers.

BLOODLESS WAR BETWEEN
GREECE AND ROUMANIA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—An open break between Greece and Rumania has occurred according to information received in this city, straining the dangerous situation in the Balkans.

The immediate cause for the rupture was the fact that the sultan recognized the independence of the Kosovo Wallachs, a people living near the Greek border in Macedonia, who number perhaps 100,000.

DEATH. MACHUM.—On Monday, 6th November, at 122 Carmichael street, Lella R., wife of E. R. Machum. Funeral on Wednesday at 3 p. m. Service at residence at 533.

ANOTHER CASE FROM BLACK TOWN'S WELL

Dr. G. A. Baddy has not yet completed his bacteriological examination of the samples of water sent to him from what is known as Black Town Well, off Douglas avenue, and which it is thought contains typhoid fever germs. In this case he has previously mentioned an Indian woman who drank the water is now ill. The boy was playing football in a field below the well when, being thirsty, he drank some of the water.

The rummage sale now in progress in the Tabernacle Hall, Haymarket Square, will be open only in the afternoon.

The enquiry into the death of Chas. O'Regan will be resumed before Coroner D. E. Berryman tonight at the court house.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

FOR SALE—Two new self-contained houses. All modern improvements. Enquire 29 Main street.

WANTED—A capable cook, highest wages. Apply to MRS. J. WALTER HOLLY, 116 Colgate street.

BOARDING—Large front room, with without board, 180 Mill street.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that my wife, Lenora Pike, having left my bed and board, without any just cause, I will not be responsible for bills she may contract.

REUBEN PIKE. WANTED—At once, a blacksmith, one who understands jobbing preferred. Apply to JOHN WILLET, 46 Waterloo street.

WANTED, WORK—By a capable woman, house in the same street. Apply No. 2, City Road.

LOST—Sunday evening, gold cuff link (initials F. B. B.) Finder will confer a favor by leaving at Star Office.