POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning two drunks, who were remanded yesterday by Magistrate Henderson, were fined $4 each.

Florence Le Rocque, an eighteen year old girl, who has lately been seen too frequently on the street, was arrested shortly after last midnight on Princess street by Detective Marshall. Florence was attired in a brown suit and for head gear a light merry widow. She had been in company with a young man who departed on the arrival of the officer. The court intimated that there was but little sympathy for street walkers and Florence was sentenced to a term of two months washing in the home of the Good Shepherd.

Detective Marshall had Thomas Campbell before the court for begging and the sentence was 30 days without a fine.

SUFFICIENT MONEY AND CLOTHING RECEIVED

For the Destitute Family—A Little Furniture Needed—Response Has Been Most Generous

Will those kind-hearted people who have been contributing to the relief of the family mentioned a day or two ago kindly stop sending donations. There is now sufficient money and clothing on hand to provide for the destitute ones until they can look after themselves. Some furniture is still required, but no doubt this will be found. Mrs. Hall desires that any ladies or gentlemen who feel like sending money or clothing shall remain in that frame of mind without following their desire, for other cases of destitution may arise later, in which their gifts will be needed. The response to this call has been extremely generous and through the Star Mrs. Hall wishes to thank St. John people for their readiness in helping. In addition to the donations acknowledged yesterday, the following have been received: Money from several "friends" working girls, "Inasmuch," "Frederickton," "E. A. S.," and an envelope which the following letter explains:

THE RECTORY, Woodstock, N. B., July 22, 1908.

Dear Editor,—Some of my little friends, my sisters and I have a little "Show" in my father's barn today for our pleasure and profit. After the "Show" was over we heard, and the "Show" in your paper (page two) about the case of distress in St. John, and we all felt so very sorry for the poor woman and her four children, who are so badly off, that we at once decided to send all that we made at the "Show," $14, to you to help them. Please enter it in your paper as sent by the "Children's Delight Co."

We hope that other children will try to help them.

Yours truly,
MARIORIE ALLDER,
Aged 9 1/2 years.

A lady sent a most generous supply of clothing, her little girls insisting on doing their share in helping other and less fortunate ones. Mrs. Hall also received many packages of clothing, but names of donors were not given. A suitable house is still needed, and any information as to where quarters can be secured will be gladly received. Kindly stop sending money and clothing.

The Salvation Army sent a lot of clothing. Mrs. Landau, Mrs. Hartt and Mrs. Isaacs sent three dollars, and offered a quantity of clothing, which, however, was declined with thanks.

RUMOR THAT SURVEY MAY BE A SURPRISE

Lubec Herald Hears That Campobello May Become Part of Maine.

A report is circulated in this vicinity that under the new survey now being made by the representatives of Canada and the United States Campobello will not come to be Canadian soil, and pass under control of the United States, as lying to the westward of the rocky point named from the St. Croix river to the sea. The Ashburn survey which gave the island to Canada, many years ago, has always been called into question on account of the evident location of the deep water passage, Lubec Narrows being an artificial and kindly stop sending money and clothing.

If the new survey shifts the boundary it will cause a good many changes. In the first place, a colony of as good people as can be found anywhere will be acquired by their neighbors, and will have an opportunity to show that loyalty to a new government, and flag which has always characterized them at home. The island products of fish could come in free without any special arrangement or evasion of customs duties. It would be represented at Washington instead of Ottawa, and its natives would have a voice in the affairs in which it now has only a general interest and knowledge.

The interests of the island, including the summer visitor's property, and the territory now held by the New York company, are largely American, exclusive of the free-holders estates. Whatever the inhabitants might have of the change, it is sure that no locality would ever come into the Union more welcome than the island of Campobello.

And we could go over and fish palook right off the wharf at Welshpool, borrow a chew of black jack from Captain Miles Mitchell, and thumb our noses at the Curlew and its Puz-Lubec Herald.

RACES POSTPONED.

The Moosepath races have been postponed again until Friday and Saturday. This morning the track managers and drivers and owners gathered at the grounds, and for some hours watched the weather. Opinion was divided but at eleven o'clock as there did not seem to be any prospect of material improvement, a decision was reached to put off the events till tomorrow.
