FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 9.—M. Fickler & Co.'s departmental store, one of the largest mercantile establishments of Fredericton, was burned out at an early hour this morning, causing the heaviest fire loss the city has experienced for many years.

The fire broke out at 1.45 a. m., and when discovered had considerable headway on the two top floors of the building. It was only by strenuous and well directed efforts of the fire department that the fire was confined to the premises where it originated. Fickler occupied the entire four story brick block adjoining the Barker house.

The fire was caused by a gas stove, conducted departments of dry goods, ready made clothing, shoes, millinery, carpets, house furnishings and women's apparel. The entire building is badly gutted and the stock either burned or ruined by smoke and water. The firm carried very heavy stocks at this season, estimated at from $40,000 to $45,000, on which was a total insurance of $17,000-$18,000 in the Quebec, $3,000 in the Caledonia, $4,000 placed in St. John agencies, and $5,000 through the insurance of Fickler & Co. came here four years ago from Quebec and had built up a large and successful business.

Two firemen were overcome by dense smoke, being caught on the fourth floor. They were dragged in an instant from the condition of the building and taken to the hospital. One, Miles Boone, was suffocated. Physicians worked over him for an hour before he showed any signs of recovery. It was nine o'clock today before he could be removed to his home.

HALIFAX, Feb. 8, 2 a. m.—The fast mail express with mails and passengers for the upper provinces, which arrived by the Allan line steamer Ionian from Liverpool today at 9.30 o'clock, met with a serious accident at Grand Lake station, 23 miles from this city, in which a number of the passengers were injured.

It is impossible at this hour (2 a. m.) to glean any particulars, but the accident was a very severe one. There must have been fully one hundred and possibly one hundred and fifty people on the train, which was dashing along at express speed when the accident took place.

The Ionian will proceed to St. John at daylight. She had only 108 tons of freight for Halifax, but carries over one thousand tons for St. John.

For the day's trip the Ionian had an uneventful voyage from Liverpool to this port.

HALIFAX, Feb. 9.—The accident to the fast mail express from Halifax at Grand Lake, Saturday morning, was, fortunately, not as great as at first reported. The Pullman was thrown from the track and broke away from the train. It was a narrow escape from a terrible disaster, as the train was running at a rapid rate at the time.

Mrs. A. E. Wright, aged 50, Miss M. Wright, 30, and Miss E. Wright, 18, passengers on the Ionian from Liverpool, bound to Montreal, were injured. None are very seriously injured and will likely go forward on Monday or Tuesday. Mrs. Wright is a cousin of the head, as are also her daughter and Miss Viner. Young Wright is not bruised.

Speaker's Sore Throat.

Public speakers and singers know how useless and sickening are cough mixtures, sprays, lozenges, etc., for irritable or sore throat, and state that the most satisfactory remedy is Catarrhazone, the advantage of which is that it acts quickly and is convenient to use in public places. Catarrhazone relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and is protection to the membrane. As a safeguard against colds and Catarrh it has no equal. Rev. Mr. McKay, Goderich, says, "Catarrhazone is an excellent remedy for throat irritation arising from throat irritation." Rhynas, nasal mists and singers recommend Catarrhazone, druggists sell it for $1. Small size 25c. By mail from Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

THE YEARS.

They gladly come, and sadly go.

The New Years' Eve festival snow, The Old Years' dark with sin and woe.

We welcome them with smile and song, With tears we see them pass along.

Bowed with the weight of grief and wrong, Even though we found the Old Year's way Grew hard and harder day by day, With joy we greet the New Year's way.

Before us Life her lure has spread, And Hope eternal lifts her head, We follow where her feet have sped.

O New Year, keep thy promise rare! Whatever grief our hearts may bear, Be thou at parting glad and fair.
