Brockville, Aug. 28, 1861.

ARRIVAL OF THE "EUBOPA." Halifax, Oct. 30, 1861.

coming from foreign countries to enter any port on the Southern Coast, declaring such port shall be considered a proper port of enter any for such posts and proper port of enter any for such posts and proper port of entered the two.

Turin, Oct. 20.—The Opinione of Turin states that the King of Prussia had received General Della Rosa with great cordiality. shall, without delay, despatch a messenger to the nearest collection district in order that a revenue officer may be sent to take charge of the cargo and execute the formali-

A meeting had been held in Birmingham relative to Cotton supply and in advocacy of the Cotton industry in Africa, as a means of destroying the slave trade.—The Rev. Hyland Gannett of New York, was among the speakers, and advocated the introduc-tion of colored families from America into France—It is reported the Italian question has been debated in the Cabinet Council with considerable animation, owing chiefly to the decided part taken by Persigny in favor of the Italian side. No resolution was taken. The Revue des Deux Monds has received a first warning for an objectionable summary of political events. Count Persigny has issued a circular calling on the Prefects to bring all charitable societies, established without the sanction of the government, under the operation of the laws.—

The societies of St. Vincent de Paul are established pecially pointed out for reform.

Paris, Oct. 18.—The Bourse is dull, but closed firmer at 67f 85c. The Paris money market continued unsettled, the sale of bills to be created under the credit of 2 millions granted to the bank of France, had com-

Prussia—The coronation of the king tool place at the church at Castile at Kronigsberg on the 18th. The splendour of the various processions was very great. After the coremony various addresses were presented to on the 18th. The splendour of the various processions was very great. After the ceremony various addresses were presented, to which the King reptied as follows:—The Kings of Prussia have now worn the crown 160 years. I am the first King to ascend the throne since the crown has been surrounded with institutions in harmony with our times; but remembering that the crown of the pigskin but once in his life, he decomes from God, I have been notified by my comment of this ascend place, that I recommend the second place in the Western Railway have not the great that the rest of the point of the prospects for the fall trade, paint. They are now being restored, and represent point a highly impaint. They are now being restored, and his opinion yet of the prospects for the fall trade, paint. They are now being restored, and his opinion yet of the prospects for the fall trade, paint. They are now being restored, and his opinion yet of the prospects for the fall trade, paint. They are now being restored, and his opinion yet of the prospects for the fall trade, point of the prospect for the fall trade, po

Halifax, Oct. 30, 1861.

The Royal Mail steamship "Europa" from Liverpool at 10 a. m., of the 19th, via Queenstown on the 20th, arrived at Halifax at 3,30 p.m. to-day. She has 89 passengers and £7,659 in specie, for Boston, for which port she will leave at 7 p. m.; she will be due at Boston early on Friday morning.—
The steamship "Saxonia," from New York, arrived at Southsunpton on the 17th.

ENGLAND.—The Paris correspondent of the London Times writes, "The decision as to the common line of policy to be adopted by France and England has been again revived. The subject has been mooted before, but was postponed; possibly information brought over by Prince Napoleon, may have contributed to make the Emperor more inclined to listen to proposals which might be made in this respect by England."

The London Globe gives prominence to the following paragraph:—"We learn from authentic sources that notification has been issued affecting trade with the Southern States. It would appear from a letter of instructions issued by Mr. Menninger, from Richmond on the 22nd August, that the Confederate Government authorize vessels coming from foreign countries to enter any port on the Southern Coast, declaring such

THE POLAR EXPEDITION. At a public dinner to Dr. Hayes, recently given by the Nova Scotia Medical Society, at Halifax, the Arctic explorer made the following allusion to his late expedition:

"You have intimated to me, Mr. Presingle on one of the Real del Monte villager true—viz., that the murder was unatten by plunder, the character of the movem must be of more than ordinary vindictions. But we are slow to believe in such the Time of the case, and the started by morth-east gales, we were forced to humiliation in Am dres, asys:—That anids all the turned form a change in the morsis of the communication be descried, and this there is faint me my of a new dawn; and anys that "intelligent Americans are inclined to believe that the return of peace, though it will show mutilation, may be a new dawn; and anys that "intelligent Americans are inclined to believe that the return of peace, though it will show mutilation, may be a new dawn; and ways that "intelligent Americans are inclined to believe that the return of peace, though it will show mutilation, may be a new dawn; and ways that "intelligent Americans are inclined to believe that the return of peace, though it will show mutilation, may be a new dawn; and was a start of the community of the start of the community of the start of the community of the start of the start of the community of the start of the start

I may say that I care not under what flag the enterprise may be conducted, whether under that of America, or England, or France, science will claim the honor of the

A letter from Rome of the 16th, says-A letter from Rome of the 16th, says—
"Riding a few days since in the Campagna,
I was passed by three equestrians—two certainly men, the third a puzzle, but seeming rather of the 'epicene,' or doubtful gender. It wore a yellow Zouave jacket, a black garment beyond description clothed its lower members, and on its head was jauntily stuck a bersugliere hat, with a great plume of yellow and black feathers. It rode like a wollow and black feathers. It rode like a wollow and black feathers. man—that is, very fast and recklessly—to the evident terror and suffering of its two companions, who dressed in tight suits of black, and one, at least, with his feet thrust into his stirrups the wrong way, were tempting Providence in a trot. A wide ditch was before them—I have seen men turn from a before them—I have seen men turn from a smaller. It, however, went straight at it, and got well over; and turning round, and taking off her hat to her "pounded" companions, there was the beautiful face of the ex-Queen of Naples, who stopped to light her eigar, while the two men went ignominiously round by the bridge."

secure the above second and third class growth and which has jump been smallfootd towards and such Instruments shall clearly doing and such and such Instruments shall clearly doing and such and such Instruments shall clearly doing and such that the such such and such Instruments shall clearly doing the such such that the such such tha from each other between the place of the greatest breath and the end of the toes, the worse they are; the more they tend to be in contact along that line, the better they are: beth to Queen Anne. The work is expected

TUBKEX—A Turkish war bulletin has announced a Turkish victory over 3,000 insurgents and Montenegrins.

The despatch claims that the Montenerin frontier was respected, but the Montenerin frontier was respected. moreover, is contrived to allow room enough for the play of the foot in walking, including its lengthening or shortening with the rang-ing curve of its arch, is to secure what we ought to have, and what we can get only by defying shoemakers' prejudices, and compelling shoemakers, whether they like it or not, to understand the true theory of their trade—Dickens' "All the Year Round."

ENGLISHMEN IN MEXICO.-How mus that 2,000 prisoners reminded into different regiments for the military service. The clergy had closed the churches on account of their profanation by the military.

Paris, Oct. 20.—The Gazette of France has received and published in its impression of to-day, an official communication, which gives a denial to its assertions concerning a pretended warm discussion between Count of Persigny and M. Thouvenal on the Italian Persigny and M. Thouvenal on the Italian prisonment of the Black Hole of Calcutta has the nersonal safety of so many Englishmen to the service of the Mexico of the Reyston. The Area of the Reyston. The Reyston. The Area of the Reyston. The Reyston. The Area of the Reyston. The Area of the Reyston. The Area of the Reyston. The Reyston. The Area of the Reyston. The Area of

At a conservative demonstration in Essex, Capt, Jervis, M. P., expatiated on the war in America and its effects on England. He argued in favor of the right of Secession, and argued that the people of England should give a strong expression of their sentiments as would induce the Government to act in accordance therewith.

The Times, in an editorial on the day of humiliation in America, says:—"That amid all the turmoil of war, a change in the morals of the communities can be descried, and that there is faint the cang of a new dawn," and says that "intelligent Americans are inmust be of more than ordinary vindictive-ness. But we are slow to believe in such an

The Richmond Enquiver, of the 27th ult. says:—Prince Polignac, of France, has received an appointment on Gen. Beauregards staff, with the rank of Lieut. Colonel. He staff, with the rank of Lieut. Colonel. He is a grandson of the famous Prince Polignac who was imprisoned at Ham for his fidelity to Charles X. He is reported to be in close communication with Louis Napoleon, and upon terms of intimacy with Count Morney. He comes highly recommended by our friends in Paris. He is about 20 years old, and experience with the factorists. ceedingly plain and unpretending. His family has enjoyed the title of Prince for 500

Reports from Washington say that health of Gen. Scott is becoming less a less adequate to the severe and unremitti labors imposed by his position. His fatigu have had such an effect upon his system the he now finds it difficult to attend to busine

A remarkable discovery of fine painting has taken place during the alterations a repairs being made in Marlborough Houthe future residence of the Prince of Wal These paintings, covering about five hundred square yards, had been entirely hidden beneath coatings of common wall paper and paint. They are now being restored, and represent pettraits of Marlborough and his Quebeo, Oct. 25th, 1861.

His Excellency the Administrator of the Government has been pleased to appoint Denis Godley, Esq., to be Governor's Secretary

BHAWGHA

A negro named Augustus Greene of Sher-brooke, C. E. has been committed for trial, charged with killing his wife, a white woman. The criminating evidence was given by a son eleven years of age, who testified that his mother was smothered in bed.

The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser say onger are we to tolerate the rampant audaty of weakness? What no civilized countries that "Lieut. Scott, who was in command of the 'Keystone State,' has been placed under

WEEKLY COMMERCIAL REPORT.

We write to-day in an excited market for breadstuffs. Owing to advices received this morning by "Europa," which quote "Flour firm with upward tendency, and Wheat firm at an advance of 6d. on the week;" there has been a good business done at advanced figures. Freights are a little easier. Exchange against shipments are subject to a reduction of 1/2 per cent. Ashes are going up in Liverpool; sales are made at 1s. 6d. advance on both kinds. We participate in the rise this morning and are in hopes of getting better prices the rest of the season.

Flour—Extras are in fair demand, and sell at $5.80 to $6.00. Fancy $5.70 to $3.75. No. 1 is offered freely, and not so easy to sell at top figures; sales are at $5.50 to $5.00. No. 1 is offered freely, and not so easy to sell at top figures; sales are at $5.50 to $5.00. No. 1 is offered freely, and hot so easy to sell at top figures; sales are at $5.50 to $5.00. No. 1 is offered freely, and hot so easy to sell at top figures; sales are at $5.50 to $5.00. No. 1 is offered freely, and hot so easy to sell at top figures; sales are at $5.50 to $5.00. No. 1 is offered freely, and hot so easy to sell at top figures; sales are at $5.50 to $5.00. No. 1 is offered freely, and hot so easy to sell at top figures; sales are at $5.50 to $5.00. No. 1 is offered freely, and hot so easy to sell at top figures; sales are at $5.50 to $5.00. No. 1 is offered freely, and hot so easy to sell at top figures; sales are at $5.50 to $5.00. No. 1 is offered freely. easy to sell at top figures; sales are at $5.50 to $5.60. No. 2, in demand, being carce, our sales are at $5.20. to $5.25 Fine $3.50. Middlings, $3.00.

Wheat is in good request and advancing our sales are at $1. 13 for fair samples, t. C. spring at cars; and $1.14 for a choic lot; $1.16 is paid affect; Chicago, No. 1 worth $1.18.

Pease—Not so eagerly sought for to day as at the close of last week; 75c. to 80c. is paid according to sample.

Barley—Ordinary samples bring 55c for 50 lbs, 5c more has been paid for a very Pork dull; Sales of Mess at $15 to $154 Pork dull; Sales of Mess at $15 to $154; low grades unsaleable. Very little new coming in yet. It is thought Pork will rule low this fall. We hear of Western Mess being offered at $11. As there are no statistics to go by, we can hardly give a definite opinion yet of the prospects for the fall trade. Butter—Our sales of Dairy are at 12c. to 14c., and several lots at 134c. to 134c.

held at $6 40 to $6.50. It should be sted in reference to the advance in Liverpot that freights are so high for Pots rnd Pear as seriously to affect the shipments except the home market should remain strong.

W. & T. LEEMING, COMMISSION MERCHANTS. 28 St. Nicholas Street. Montreal, October 35st, 1861.

Tom Sayers, the pugilist, has extended is sphere of operations by trying what had no do with an equestrian circle, and having urchased the three well known circuses of

A horrible tragedy took place on Monday night, at the distillery of Messrs. Coon and Onley, near Marcellus, N. Y. In a fracas which occurred there, two men, named Gallagher and English, were killed, and another badly wounded.

plicitly for denying the statement that the army of the Potemac would go into prisonment of the Black Hole of Calcutta has the personal safety of so many Englishmen been jeopardized as it is at present in Mexico. "Death to foreigners!" is the ery, and the murder of Mr. Beale has shown that it is no empty imprecation. It has always borne fruit in the outrage of women and the blood of men. If an account of a razia up-

A telegraphic dispatch to the Richmon Dispatch, from Manassas, dated the after noon of the 22nd says:

"The fight near Leesburg was more serous than at first reported. Five hundred the state of the same of the ous than at first reported. Five hundred and tweaty Federals were brought to Sudley Church this evening. Between four and five hundred of the enemy were killed and three hundred drowned in the Potomac. ur loss was also heavy—say three hu killed and wounded

These great results, be it reme were achieved by 2,500 men, fighting 10,000, with five batteries of artil

ur sales are at $6,221 for Pots; Pearls are LORD JOHN RUSSELL ON THE

G. H. TURNER & Co

CIVIL WAR IN AMERICA A grand banquet had been given to Er.rl Russell at Newcastle-upon-Tyne. In the course of the speech which his lordship made upon the occasion, he alluded as follows to the state of affairs in America:

"Gentlemen, let us look for a woment at another part of the world; at another country, which, for my part, I have also observed with the greatest interest—the United States of America. It appears to me that it would be a great misfortune to the world his sphere of operations by trying what he can do with an equestrian circle, and having purchased the three well known circuses of Messrs. Howes and Cushing, the United States, and Jim Myer's Great American Circus, he has consolidated them all into one, and christened the combination the 'Champion Circus of the World."

A horrible tragedy took place on Monday night, at the distillery of Messrs. Coon and Onley, near Marcellus, N. Y. In a fracas which occurred there, two men, named Gallagher and English, were killed, and another badly wounded.

States of American Cartive to the world if that experiment in free government which, though not carried on in exactly the same principals as those of our own, was conducted on principles which had been devised with great misfortune if anything were to happen to that State. [Cheers:] I am sorry to say that these events have happened, and we now see two parties contending together not upon the question of Slavery—though though not carried on in exactly the same principals as those of our own, was conducted on principles which had been devised with great misfortune to the world if that experiment in free government which, though not carried on in exactly the same principals as those of our own, was conducted on principles which had been devised with great misfortune to the world if that experiment in free government which, though not carried on in exactly the same principals as those of our own, was conducted on principles which had been devised with great misfortune to the world if that experiment in free government which, though not carried on in exactly the same principals as those of our own, was conducted on principals as those of our own, was conducted on principals as those of our own, was conducted on principals as those of our own, was conducted on principals as those of our own, was conducted on principals as those of our own, was conducted on principals as those of our own, was conducted on principals as those of our own, was conducted on principals as those of our Trade and Protection, but contending as so many states of the Old World have contended, the one side for empire and the other for power. Far be it from us to set ourselves up as judges in the matter, but I cannot help asking myself, as affairs progress in the contest, to what good end can it lead? Supposing this contest ended, by the reunion of its different parts, and that the South should agree te enter again with all rights of the Constitution, should we not again have that fatal subject of Slavery brought in along with them? [Hurrah.] That subject of Slavery which caused, no doubt, the disruption, we all agree, must, sooner or later, cease from the face of the old World have contended, the one side for empire and the other for power. Far be it from us to set ourselves up as judges in the matter, but I cannot help asking myself, as affairs progress in the contest, to what good end can it lead? Supposing this contest ended, by the reunion of its different parts, and that the South should agree te enter again with all rights of the Constitution, should we not again have that fatal subject of Slavery which caused, no doubt, the disruption, we all agree, must, sooner or later, cease from the face of the old World have contended, the one side for empire and the other for power. Far be it from us to set ourselves up as judges in the matter, but I cannot help asking myself, as affairs progress in the contest, to what good end can it lead? Supposing this contest ended, by the reunion of its different parts, and that the South should agree te enter again with all rights of the Constitution, should we not again have that fatal subject of Slavery which caused, no doubt, the disruption, we all agree, must, sooner or later, cease from the face of the cart. [Cheers.] Well then, gentlemen, as you will see, if this quarrel could be made up, should we not have those who differed from Mr. Lincoln at the last election carried back into the Union, and thus, sooner or later, the quarrel would recommence, and the contest of the c Trade and Protection, but contending as so many states of the Old World have contended, the one side for empire and the other for power. Far be it from us to set ourselves up as judges in the matter, but I cannot help asking myself, as affairs progress in the contest, to what good end can it lead? The Duke of Manchester is engaged in preparing from his family papers a couple of volumes for the press, illustrative of the history of English society from Queen Elizabeth to Queen Anne. The work is expected for the coming season.

A fatal accident occurred at the Ottawa steeple chase on Thursday. Amidst the confusion of carriages leaving the grounds, on the conclusion of the races, a young man named Samuel Young, of the township of Goulbourne, was accidently run over by a double waggon and instantly killed.—Globe.

A negro named Augustus Greene of Sher
The Duke of Manchester is engaged in preparing from his family papers a couple of volumes for the residence of Sher named Walter Laidlaw, who lately left Galt, and thus, sooner or later, the quarrel would recommence, and thus been for some time residing in Texas, was killed in that State shortly after the war broke out. It is said that he refused to enlist under the Southern banner, and thus, sooner or later, the quarrel would recommence, and perhaps a long civil war follow? On the other hand, supposing the United Stated completely to conquer and subdue the Southern States, supposing that should be the result of a long military conflict, supposing that should be the result of some years of civil war, should we not have the material prosperity of that country in a great degree destroyed, should we see that respect for liberty which has so long distinguished our North American brethern, and should we not see those Southern men yielding to force, and would not the North be necessitated to THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR.

Washington, Oct. 30.

I think I bave sufficient authority for exlicitly for denying the statement that are army of the Potemac would go into which we at present look forward, if by means such as these the reunion of the States should be brought about, it is not the duty of those men who have embraced the present, and no such suggestion has been made by General McClellan. Winter barracks will be provided, and timely preparations are making for this, but beyond that nothing are being done, looking like inaction during the winter months.—Times despatch.

Darnestown, Oct. 29.

On Sunday last, the pickets of the Penn-with others, procured a skiff, crossed the river, and intercepted the soow on its downward passage. It was found nearly full of water, but contained thirty-one guns, with fixed bayonets, twelve haversacks, and three heaver we winter from their appearance in such numbers."

On Thursday evening, the 17th inst., a person named John Wilson, of the Township of Godmannchester, C. E., fell into Trent and was drowned. The jury returned a verdict, "Drowned while in a state of in toxication."

There was lately a resumption of the Sabbatts services in the Londen theatres. Ten thousand people at least were gathered in front of preachers precaching from the stage.

The repairs necessary on the Great Eastern from the damage received when she broke her radder, will cost £10,000.

The only child of Mr. James McAllister of Hamilton, a boy seven years of age, a few into the side, by conflicts and disturbances there was found nearly full of the river, and intercepted the scow on its down there river, and intercepted the scow on its down there side, by conflicts and disturbances in the chart but ally in some proportionate or the rope as well as in America [cheers]—in the times are access it is the duty of the foreign kined three the cases of its the duty of the times.

The past week. They came from the magazine for the sease cases it is the duty of the three in the damage received that this was the principal boat under in the damage received when she broke the independence of all fereign nations, and to let go any part of that prepared the and they were discharged from its further than the great proposed the season of the times in America [cheers]—in the times.

The strict is the duty of the foreign in the case cases it is the duty of the head of the Government of this country, it is the duty of the times.

The strict is the duty of the foreign in time time the case cases it is the duty of the head of the Government of this country, it is the duty of the times.

The strict is the duty of the foreign in time time the case cases it

In Carleton Place, on the 4th inst., Mrs. Wm. Moore, Miner, of a son. MARRIED.

In St. James' Church, Carleton Place, on Wednesday, Oct. 30th, by the Rev. E. H. M. Baker, Rector, Mr. John Keays to Miss Elizabeth McFadden, both of the village of

In St. James' Church Carleton Place, Monday, Nov. 4th, by the same, Mr. Robe Giles to Miss Amelia Willis, daughter Mr. Catin Willis, all of Ramsay.

-	-4	COMPANY OF THE PARKS	4 4 4 4
۹	Ottawa Market Pr	100	3.
1	Job.	30.	1901	-
t	Wheat-Fall, white$1	15	0	20
	" red	95	0	10
2	Spring, No. 1	05	0 1	10
f
f	Flour-Fall Wheat X	75	0 9	75
Ť
e	44 No 24	240
3	Farmers'	E0	9	75
麗	Oatmeal & bbl. 196 lbs	50	0 1	55
•	TO SO LONG BE INC.	ACL L		4
w	O 4 SO breehol LAIDS		100	200
~	D SO brighel builds	AND CAR		ALC: NO
3	Corn bushel	-	9 6
7	Corn bushel Potatoes bushel	000	9
88	Hay ton	Barb C	0.00
3	Straw & ton	00	9	-
4	Pork 100 Ibs	200	O.
4	Straw & ton	100	0	4+
d	" " B	00	9	1
	Mutton & ib by the quarter.	06	9	44
я	Ham	100	CE	770

FATRS. Perth, first Tuesday in May and Octobe Lanark, second Tuesday in May and Oct Smith's Falls, first Friday in October. Ferguson's Falls, third Tuesday in May o ton Place, first Tuesday in April and N ber.

Clayton, third Wednesday in April and second Wednesday in November.
Pakenham, second Tuesday in May and second Thursday in October.
Franktown, second Tuesday in May and Sept'ber.
Almonte, last Thursday in April and October.
Sand Point, first Tuesday in May and October.
Bonnechere Point, second Tuesday in April and october.

Detober.

Ross, fourth Tuesday in April and October, Pembroke, second Wednesday in March and the Wednesday in October.

Roseville, second Thursday in May and Septeml
Amprior, first Thursday in May and October.
Ashton, First Thursday in March and October.
Mirickville, first Thursdays in September, October and November.

Eganville, Wednesday, 30th October.
Rentrew, Wednesday, 6th November.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

NEW AND CHEAP GOODS. THE SUBSCRIBER thankful to his Friends and Customers for the patronage bestowed on him since commencing business in Arnprior, would now beg leave to inform them and the public that he has received a NEW STOCK OF GOODS, con-DRY GOODS, GROCERIES. LIQUORS, HARDWARE. CROCKERY, GLASSWARE. Stationery, Drugs, Boots and Shoes, and numerous other articles all which will be Sold cheap for Cash or Farmers Produce.

N. B.—In the Store formerly occupied by Mr. J. F. Farley.

JOHN McLAREN. Araprior, 1st November, 1861.

$10 REWARD.
OST, a HOUND DOG, answers to the name of BRUNO, colour—white, with black head and ears, black spots on the body, with curled tail.

Also—A HOUND SLUT, answers to the name of JUNO, colour—white, with yel-low head and ears, and part yellow body. Any person returning the same or giving information where they may be found, will receive the above reward.

DAVID S. BOOTH. Brockville, Nov. 1st, 1861.

LIGHT! LIGHT!! LIGHT!!! Cheaper than ever.

THE BEST COAL OIL only 75 cts. per gallon. In packages of 20, 40 and 50 gallons for country Merchants at HOLESALE. LAMPS, CHIMNIES, &c., &c., at 20 per cent less than usual price—FOR CASH Fluid and Common Oil Lamps, changed to burn Coal Oil.

JOHN HART.

Perth, Nov. 4th, 1861. NOW IS THE TIME TO GET UP CLUBS. GREAT INDUCEMENTS FOR 1862.

fight over the angle bring to be cleared out.

The same has brink

The same has brink

The same has brink

The project remains of a price of bridgy eventing was averted.

A positive is in circulation at Washington and the project area of the project remains of the project re work, Hair-work, Wax Flowers, Stained Glass Leather-work, Painting, Photographs, &c., with full descriptions. Every number will contain a Superb Colored Pattern for Slip-per, Purse, Chair Seats, Handkerchief, Em-broidery, Collar and Cuff, or some other use-ful, or ornamental articles: and each of these would cost, at a retail store, Fifty cts.

Magazine.

Receipts for the Table, Toilette, Sick Room, &c., &c., will be given in every number. A piece of new and fashionable music will appear each month. Also, articles on the Flower Garden, and Horticulture generally: and hints on all matters interesting to

TERMS:-ALWAYS IN ADVANCE. One copy for one year $2; Three copies for one year $5; Five copies for one year, $7.-50; Right copies for one year $10; Twelve copies for ene year $15; Sixteen copies for

PREMIUMS FOR GETTING UP CLUBS!—

Iree, Five, Eight, or more copies, make a ab. To every person getting up a Club, of Iree, Five, Eight, or Twelve copies, an cra copy of the Magazine for 1862 will be

If preferred, however, we will send a Premium, (instead of the extra copy,) illustrated Lady's Album, handsomely

und in gilt, or our Magnificent Mezzotint framing, size 27 inches by 20—"Bun

"s Wife Interceeding for his Release from ison." To every person getting up a Club

Sixteen, two extra copies of the Magazine, of either of the other Premiums will be at. Address, post-paid,

CHARLES J. PETERSON,

No. 306 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia.

No. 306 Chesnut Street, Pl All Postmasters constituted Agents: but any person may get up a Club. Specimens sent gratustously, if written for.