MUST HAVE BEEN THE REAL ARTICLE

When the local license inspector, Mr. J. Winterhilt, approached the municipal sanatorium this morning, the reason for his coming seemed obvious. The press thought that he had been put wise to an infraction of the O.T.A. However it was a case of mistake in interpretation. The official denied that there was anything doing. And his statement was accepted. The basis for the suspicion on the part of the press that there was to be a procession for having perched on too much of the flowing liquid was the fact that a guardian of the police, retained in the basement, was under the influence of liquor. It was a fact that a woman tied in the old cells had been overcome by the aroma of the stuff that had been removed to Toronto a few days previously. Judging by the ecstasy and contention of the animal there was a real 'kink' in the fluid which somebody today is missing.

At the time of going to press no further report had been received. If the canine was kept in the cell he must surely be far away in a seventy two hours sleep.

Speaking of fashions, do the ladies have to have their hobbles skirts pressed to take out that bag at the knees? asks an impertinent man.

Proceeding to Complete Organization

Asked to-day whether anything further was being done to complete the organization of a local fire prevention league, following the meeting held here recently, Ald. Sass, the chairman of the Fire Committee, to-day said that further steps were being taken. More information was being sought but it was hoped to have something definite in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Burrough, who leave shortly for their home in Edmonton, were pleasantly surprised by their friends on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. Jos. Walker. The evening was spent with games and music and after a delicious lunch was served Mrs. Allen Shoemaker presented them, on behalf of the gathering, with a silver teapot and salver as a slight token of the high esteem in which they are held.

Millicent Knowles Was At Georgetown

Millicent Knowles Guelph who disappeared from the home of Mrs. Storey in that city last Saturday morning, was at Georgetown Saturday afternoon, according to a message received by the Guelph Chief Constable. Relatives are advertising for information as to the whereabouts of the girl, described as the ward of a wealthy New York manufacturer, who disappeared Saturday morning. She is twenty-two years of age, fair of medium height. She has been attending the Sacred Heart Convent in Montreal, but because of poor health and only lately gone to stay with Mrs. Storey, wife of Admiral Storey, of Halifax, at her home near the O.A.C. Saturday morning she left to go to church, and has not been seen since.

Probably Fatal Accident

Walter G. Chamberlain, well-known throughout Stratford as a window cleaner, was probably fatally injured when he fell from a window of McPherson & Makins' law offices on Down street, a height of twelve or fifteen feet, shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning. He has been removed to the Stratford General Hospital. His skull is fractured, several ribs are broken and he received a bad cut on the face. He was unconscious at last reports from the hospital. He lost his balance while cleaning a window on the outside and fell to the street. In his fall he hit a passerby, who broke the fall to the cement walk.

New Traffic Regulation In Effect Today

Most important measures affecting motorists become law to-day, and hereafter it will be legal to drive at twenty-five miles an hour on country roads and twenty miles per hour on the city streets and within the limits of towns and villages. However, it will not be legal to use the cut-out in the days to come, and all commercial vehicles must carry a mirror on the rear, located so that the driver can see any machine, vehicle or pedestrian that may be approaching him from the rear.

101 Years Old

To but few who were born in the far-off year of 1818 has been accorded the privilege of attaining a birthday in 1919. Such has been, however, the happy lot of Colin LaFortune, who resides with his daughter, Mrs. F. L. Nicolls, at the Dominion Hotel Port Dover, the auspicious event taking place last Wednesday.

The aged gentleman is quite vigorous, and busies himself each day performing the little light tasks which he delights in doing. To judge by his present good health, Mr. LaFortune bids fair to surpass the age of his four elder brothers, one of whom died at the age of 106, another at 103, another at 98, and one at 94.

Be sure you hear Mr. B. W. N. Grigg, "B. A.", lecture on Edmund Spenser's "The Faerie Queene," in the Y. W. C. A., Tuesday, April 29th. The lecture, the fourth in the Course, should be of special interest to all young people. 3t.
