"DOE THE NEXT THYNGE"

BY REV. W. STURTEVANT RAFTER, B. A.

In letters of gold, o'er the casement writ, I noticed the sentence by sunlight lit. And though months have passed I hear the ring Of the words of gilt: "Doe the next thynge."

At first they seemed of but little import, And easily forgotten a sentence so short But often at eve when alone I sit. I see the words in my mem'ry writ.

There's a meaning deep to those who will note.

And worthy they are to be learned by rote. You've ended your task, "Now I'll rest," you say.

And in laziness spend the best of the day.

Like one rowing up stream who rests his blade,

Drifts back, and looses the goal nearly made.

they bring, Seek ease, when you should " Doe the next thynge."

Or perhaps you've failed, as any man may, "No good in trying," no doubt you will say. What! You will give up the fight? Leave the ring?

No! never while you can " Doe the next thynge."

If one door is closed another will ope. And true are the words, "While there is life, there is hope;"

So if with one thing you can't go ahead. Why then "Doe the next thynge" my boys, instead!

A CONFERENCE.

MR. JONES, loquitur :- Mr. Smith, vou are a nominal Churchman, but not an "Evangelical." I hear you are "High." How is this? The Church-people in your parish a few years ago were all Low Churchmen, your father and his family among the rest. Now it is the other way with yourselves and most of your neighbours. This is very wrong. I am afraid it is mostly owing to the influence of your parson, who puts the Church above Christ and therefore is high indeed. Low Churchmen put Christ in the first place, and the Church below Him. Hence they are evangelical, and your sort are 'Sacerdotalists,' and ' Ritualists.'

MR. BROWN :- Yes, -- Sacerdotalists, because they believe the Church
