

and that also of the Officer who inflicted the sentence or saw it carried out; and there shall be a column in the said Book for the sentence, which shall be filled in by the Warden and signed by him. And no complaint by any
 5 Officer against any convict shall be entertained by the Warden until it is recorded in the said Punishment Book; and no punishment shall be inflicted for any offence until the day after the said offence shall have been committed; and no punishment shall be inflicted until the Warden has 10 entered his award in the Punishment Book. Provided always, that the Warden shall have power, in the event of the refractory conduct of any convict rendering it necessary, summarily to remove such convict apart, and to place him in a cell and to keep him there until the usual hour of punishment shall have arrived. And should the In-
 15 spectors authorize corporal punishment to be inflicted in the Prison, the Warden shall have recourse to it only in extreme cases, and shall not inflict more than seventy-five lashes for any one offence; and no corporal punishment shall be inflicted until the Physician shall have certified
 20 to the bodily fitness of the convict for such punishment; nor shall any such infliction be carried out except in the presence of the Warden and Physician.

XLI. And be it enacted, That the Inspectors shall draw up a form of questions to be put to each convict on 25 his or her discharge from the Penitentiary, so framed as to shew by the answers, the views of the convicts as to the discipline and the treatment of the prisoners, and the effects produced on each; and the said formula of questions shall be put immediately before his or her dis-
 30 charge, to every convict by the Warden in the presence of the Chaplain of such convict, and the answers of each convict shall be correctly recorded in a book kept for that purpose, and the convict shall subscribe the same after they shall have been recorded, and the Warden and 35 Chaplain shall sign their names to the same in attestation of the correctness thereof.

Inspectors to draw up questions to be put to convicts.

XLII. And be it enacted, That no convict shall be discharged from the Penitentiary on Sunday, but any and every sentence expiring on that day shall be held as ex-
 40 piring on the day previous and the Warden shall discharge such prisoner on Saturday. And no convict shall be discharged from the Penitentiary at the termination of his or her sentence, if he or she shall then labour under any grievous illness during which he or she cannot be safely
 45 discharged—unless at the request of the said convict. And whenever any convict shall be discharged from the Penitentiary, either by pardon or expiration of sentence, it shall be the duty of the Warden to furnish such convict with the necessary clothing, ordered by the Inspectors,
 50 and with such sum of money not exceeding five pounds as the said Warden may deem proper and necessary.

Convicts not to be discharged on Sundays.

To be furnished with clothing, &c.
