

which order, the said Deputy Grand Voyer, or other officer or person performing the duties of Grand Voyer as aforesaid, shall require the persons interested in the said Queen's highway or highways to meet on the day, and at the hour and place which he shall fix, to give such information as they may judge necessary and proper, and after such meeting, the said Deputy Grand Voyer or officer or person as aforesaid, shall go upon the spot to change the direction of such part or parts of the said Queen's highways or bye-roads, and open such other highway or highways, bye-road or bye-roads, as may be necessary for communicating with the said Bridge; and the said Deputy Grand Voyer or other officer or person as aforesaid, shall fix and allot the work to be performed, and by whom, upon such parts of the Queen's highway or highways, to be as aforesaid changed, and upon such highway or highways, bye-road or bye-roads, which shall be opened as aforesaid, of all which he shall make a procès verbal, to be heard and determined upon in due course of law.

Bridge, &c.,
vested in the
said A. M.
Delisle and others, their heirs and assigns.

IV. And be it enacted, That the said Bridge and the said Toll-house, Turnpike and dependencies to be erected thereon, or near thereto, and also the ascents or approaches to the said Bridge, and all materials which shall be from time to time found or provided, for erecting, building or maintaining and repairing the same, shall be vested in the said Alexander Maurice Delisle, Benjamin Henri Lemoine, and Jean Baptiste Debieu, their heirs and assigns for ever.

At the expiration of fifty years, His Majesty may assume the possession of the said bridge, &c. paying to A. M. Delisle, &c. the full value thereof.

Provided, that after the expiration of fifty years from the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to assume the possession and property of the said Bridge, Toll-house, Turnpike and dependencies, and the ascents and approaches thereto, upon paying to the said Alexander Maurice Delisle, Benjamin Henri Lemoine, and Jean Baptiste
