KINETTE CLUB

Three members of the South Peel Kinette Club and their husbands attended the District 8 Kinsmen Convention recently held at Lakefield on the outskirts of Peterborough. They were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper (presidents of the Kinsmen and Kinette Clubs respectively), Mr. and Mrs. George Carruthers, and Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton.

Highlights of the three-day affair were a Fur Fashion Show at the Ladies' Luncheon, entertainment provided by the Kinsmen Crescendos — a children's band from Peterborough, and skit competitions which was won by the North York club.

The Kinette business meeting was held with Past Co-ordinator Marg Cole and present Co-ordinator Terry Pagen in charge. The new co-ordinator for 1970-71 is Carol Westrop from Brampton.

The Kinsmen Club of Stouffville walked away with the expansion awards, having the largest gain in membership for the year. Bulletin Awards were won by Lex Taggart of the Oshawa Kinette Club and Moe Cruikshank of the Clarkson Kinsmen Club.

As this was the 50th Anniversary of the Association of Kinsmen Clubs, District 8's goal was to raise $50,000 for Cystic Fibrosis research. This was more than realized with a total of $57,000 donated by the Kinette and Kinsmen clubs of District 8.

The North York Kinsmen Club gave the largest donation at the convention; a cheque for $10,000.

The 1970-71 District 8 convention will be hosted by the Kinsmen and Kinette clubs of Oshawa at the Holiday Inn in Oshawa.
