25th Nov. 1.

Sir,

I beg to inform you that two parcels containing two helmets (one white one for hot weather and one blue one for Spring and Autumn wear) and one India-rubber coat have this day been forwarded to your address by Express for the use of the Constable on the Caughnawaga Indian Reserve.

The helmets will be renewed in five years i. e. in the Fall of 1891 and the rubber coat will be renewed in three years, i. e. in the Fall of 1889; and the goods

A. Brossard Esq.

Indian Agent.
