

at what time I do not remember but I was an 8 month baby. Any records made by your father would certainly be from before mother in there was no one else could give them. I never saw a head of the "sheep" there was no one else could give her information I have no idea what became of her. I never asked her mother did mother, she had no one for mother. She went to a college in the States but I never heard again after she wrote from there. I don't think I kept her letter so there any chance of your spending Christmas with us this year? We would all love to have you and would do our best to make you happy. The day is 20-1-about your birthdays. We have been out of town all week but when I realize how hard it is for me to remember the birth of my own children, I don't see how an outsider could know anything.

 I know in Wakefield, they registered the minute of my child's birth. I should think the registry office in Montreal would have the record of your so the best of my knowledge was born at 6 a.m. on Monday, Nov 11th 1878. I'm not born on Thursday, Dec 17th 1874
