

THE REV. EDWARD GLOWACKI, C. R., SECOND
PASTOR OF ST. MARY'S PARISH, 1866-1870.

Some contended to have it named "HABENICHTS," because its inhabitants were in the throes of poverty. Finally, the name "Bethlehem," was suggested by John Mack, the first school teacher. The idea arose from its Scriptural bearing—being the most neglected and