ANCIENT AND MODERN HISTORY.

Thos. V. Channing
1883

"In History, as in every branch of mental culture, the first elementary school-instruction is not merely an important, but an essential, condition, to a higher and more scientific knowledge. At first, indeed, it is merely a nomenclature of celebrated personages and events—a sketch of the great historical eras, divided according to chronological dates, or a geographical plan—which must be impressed on the memory, and which serves as a basis preparatory to that more vivid and comprehensive knowledge to be obtained in riper years."
