

The "MOUNT ROYAL"

Is a paper that encourages the junior philatelic writers ❁ ❁
