Cowan's Cake Icings

Prepared Ready for Use They Save Time and Labor

MOCOLATE, PINK LEMON COLOR AND WHITE

The Catholit-Register.

SMOKERS

Alive Bollardne 199 Yonge St.

Perfection Smoking Mixture

PRICE FIVE CENTS

VOL. XI. No. 39 Monseigneur Pascal's Experiences

(Northwest Review.)

On Tuesday of last week His Lordmust necessarily be lost in its trans- the globe." I remember how these

On His Lordship's arrival in the ed my vocation. On His Lordship's described to study-hall of the college, packed to "In those days most of our mission utmost capacity, Rev. Father sionaries made for the far north, peloved Archbishop, made over to us the Indians of the plain, this fine property. I therefore feel that in presenting to Your Lordship ing them yours. They, too, are over- from their feet and struck out northour students we are justified in calljoyed to see you among them, for ward. In 1847 young Father Tache sionary labors in the vast territories which are the theatre of your burning zeal, where you teach true doctrine and true civilization. The fact from all points of the compass to that many of our students will in the future, as they have done in the lindians that he was one of those past, consecrate themselves to the black robes who go about doing good. tional reason for rejoicing at the presence here to-day of one of the representatives of authority in the ministry of souls gives them an addi-Church. I would ask you, my Lord, and fervent converts. to give us your episcopal blessing before addressing us, so that we may all derive greater profit from your serve when I lecture on the missions words, that both masters and pupils may be better disposed to labor ac-

The Right Rev. Bishop then blessed the kneeling throng, and after Boniface College in 1874, almost 30 have approached the Arctic circle. summer and in winter, in the latter spiration after being over-heated. pupils under Father Lavoie, O. M. I was destined to the far northern mission of Fort Good Hope, almost on the Arctic circle, and I here found one or two sons of Mr. Gaudet. the chief factor at that distant Hudson Bay post, whose acquaintance I was soon to make and whose friendship I value highly. Seeing now so ed with a faithful and skillful guide that Monseigneur Tache was yielding to an inspiration from God when he ciety of Jesus, who are pillars of the quite large. We did so in roughly appealed to the members of the So-Church, who succeed so admirably in their colleges and missions every-Church, which calls them especially to this educational work. Our expectations of abundant fruit from their coming have been fully realized in what we see to-day.

and far between; now they are numerous and meet together easily. Thirty years ago St. poniface was college. I feel sure that this great walls good laymen and priests. ference to me. I am one of the latest comers in the mission fields. My forerunners are gone to their reward; Bishop Faraud, who died in my arms in St. Boniface thirteen years ago, and we have just lost the one who

FURRIERS

X/E'VE got the whole

that it pays to buy good goods. That's the reason why every train coming into Toronto carries one of our patrons. You should be one if you wish to be dressed stylishly at the same cost as it will take you to do it the other way.

Hats are now in-Derbys,

Silks and Alpines, by such makers as Dunlap and Henry Heath, of London.

You can't be well attired

& D. DINEEN CO.

without a Dineen Hat.

Our new fashions in Fall province into our way of thinking

received me into the Oblate Order Bishop Clut. The explains why spoke of him last Sunday is the cathedral. I cherish a great veneration for him. In 1870 he came to France, looking for recruits in the seminaries. I remember his saying to us, for I was then a seminarian: ship Bishop Pascal, O.M.I., kindly 'You are so numerous, and we are consented to relate his missionary ex- so few, barely a dozen missionaries periences before the faculty and stu- to evangelize thousands of Indians, dents of St. Boniface College. The who are asking for one thing only eloquent Prince Albert prelate is a to be taught how to pray. How can charming talker. His descriptions and language were so graphic that he held you remain comfortably at home, his hearers spell-bound with occasion- while so many are calling for the al bursts of applause or maughter for spiritual help you can give them? Our the better part of two hours. We Lord and His apostles travelled from have attempted to prepare a pretty place to place, eating what they could full report of this memorable lecture, get, a honeycomb or a little fish. So but, as it was spoken in French, the true missionary, like St. Francis much of the flavor of the original Xavier, roughs it in all quarters of its utmost capacity, Rev. Father sionaries made for the far north, Rector said: "My Lord, we are de- where they still labor, the Jesuits in lighted to welcome you here to-day. Alaska, the Oblates along the Macken-The Fathers of your Order developed zie River. The reason was that the the great missionary work begun by Indians of the plains in Manitoba and Father, afterwards Bishop, Proventhe southern territories were to cher. It was a member of your or- comfortably off with their buffalo der, the illustrious Archbishop Tache, hunting to listen to the hard lessons who introduced us into this college. of the Gospel. So the missionaries, Another member of your order, our after unavailing efforts to convert words of the saintly Bishop determin-

SHOOK THE DUST

they have heard of your great mis- appeared among the rocks of Lake Athabaska. When the slender little quite an event. Indians flocked thither They were anxious to see this extra-

"To come to my own experiences ! will follow the order I generally obduring my occasional visits cording to the intentions of Our mate; then mode of life; then fishing, hunting; finally the Indians, their language, what they were formerly. "Some of you have been as far the immense prairies. When I tell people in Europe that it takes two days and nights of constant travelling ing or frozen waterways by a first-class train to cross those nor of weeks, but of months. The last we reached the missions the missionaries were few north of Edmonton. Here the streams and such a place. You begin loading smoke will not blow in our faces. site direction,s some towards the the westerly outpost of Catholic civi- Then we come upon hills, then high put on our fur coats, first tucking the for your fire is yours, what you leave lization, and even now one cannot mountains, which the clouds seem to cassock up to the waist. As the great is for others. By this time the fire find west of this so well equipped a touch. There are frequent and heavy thing is to keep the feet warm we downpours of rain. Northward the institution will send forth from its land seems to slope downward toward the pole. All the lesser streams thank Father Rector for his kind re- that empty into the giant Mackenzie, such as the Liard, the Peace and the Athabaska rivers, which take their rise in the Rocky Mountains, are the great Archbishop Tache, the able barred by cascades and falls. So is the Clear Water River flowing from pull on our moccasins, the throngs of Portage la Loche, so is another large river east of Athabaska Lake. the way to Fort Smith there is a rapid 18 miles long. Thence the meeting rapids. This line of cascades drops to 50 degrees below zero. When region of the height of land looks as if is not precisely pleasant. Our first if nature meant to protect the Northland from inconsiderate invasion.

HEIGHT OF LAND

The wind blows at that temperature strong our feet and melting our frozen beards before the fire. Strong tea, drying our frozen beards before the fire. Church including the Alachtich connection with this project he strong tea, drying our frozen beards before the fire. Church including the Alachtich connection with this project he strong tea, drying our frozen beards before the fire. Church including the Alachtich connection with this project he strong tea, drying our frozen beards before the fire. "When you have left behind you the vast treeless region of prairie grass you come upon a beautiful country half forest, half prairie grass. This is the great valley of the Saskatche-The soil is very fertile. This year we should have had a harvest more abundant than your in Manitoba, had there been more heat, and rain during the past summer. Quite lately I walked through fields where the wheat was as high as my At Price Albert ten days ago the harvest was fairly ripe.

"North of that fertile valley the secene changes very much; steep mountains, innumerable lakes, of them very large, such as Athabaska, 200 miles long, Great Slave Lake 300, Great Bear Lake larger There being as much water as land, we always

TRAVEL BY WATER.

"Outside of the immediate neighborhood of lakes and waterways the vegetation is not luxuriant, but good large trees extend farther inland, the balsam fir being particularly large. There is a river near Athabaska Lake which is lined on each side with fine forest trees, enough to build 500 houses without making an appreciable breach in the forest. Beyond these woods the land is good only for fur-bearing animals, it is a country of

TORONTO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1903

(Formerly The Canada Permanent and Western Canada Mortgage Corporation) TORONTO STREET . . TORONTO.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $7,600,000.00

ASSETS, $23,600,000,00

1st Vice-President and Managing Pirector: J. HERBERT MASON

With the largest resources of any mortgage corporation, and its funds carefully invested by officers of such experience, its depositors are assured of absolute safety.

wolves (un pays de loups). Athabaska, and always on the flow- Now let me describe to you

"I am often asked in Europe how it prairies, they think we are drawing is possible to live in those regions. interminable plains in 1874, we start son is very cold. In winter it is We are looking for a good place difficult altogether to escape frost- camp, not on the ice the number of pupils, I understand oxen it was a journey not of days, warm for coats and caps which leave you are going to camp, put on > near Lac La Birche and Portage de tive point, you coult by nights, it dry wood for the fire we note flow from the watershed in two oppo- your sledge with dried meat, called pemmican, tea, sugar, blankets, a pil- less woods is that everything is com-North Pole, others flow southwards. low, a change of clothing. Then we mon property; the wood you choose and use instead what are called in French 'nippes' (pronounced 'neaps') We wrap our bare feet in several squares of thick 'duck,' each about the size of a handkerchief and then which lace up and hold the nippes firmly together. This makes an ideal footgear, much warmer than any other. After that we strap our legs in 'mitasses,' a kind of strong leg-Arctic ocean. Your cannot leave gings, to keep out the melting snow. Not unfrequently the thermometer very low it is difficult to make the fire burn properly; the smoke will not

DISCARD SOCKS

Have you read

"The Story

School?"

If not, send request by postal and receive it by return mail free. It is published by the Central Business College of Toronto, Limited, and is worthy of a careful perusal by all parents and by young people gen-

W. H. SHAW,

President,

Toronto, Ont.

erally. Address ~

of a Business

because the Indians always pitch burning in front and your back is like thanking Father Rector for his kind west and north as St. Albert, near their wigwams near the water that an ice-house. The great danger in Edmonton, but I think none of, you we always travel by water both in these winter journeys is checked per-Boniface College in 1874, almost 30 years ago, there was only a small wooden building with a handful of pupils under Father Lavoie, O. M. I. So it may be as well to give you an season of course on the ice, which is hard to dry yourself, but, when affords the smoothest kind of road, you get too warm you must take off pupils under Father Lavoie, O. M. I. Thirteen times I have traversed the your coat for a moment, lest the When I tell region around Notre Dame tu Lac, over heating might bring on pleurisy

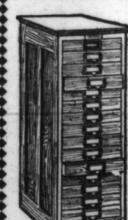

"The short day is drawing the long bow. When I crossed those We must admit that the winter sea- close, the dogs are evidently tired. named Michel Proulx. With our six bites on nose and cheeks. But we have firma. The dogs, quick to notice that nothing visible but the eyes and nose. spurt of strength and rush the sledge hardest part of the journey was the In this Northland there are no up the river bank. As soon as we crossing of so many rivers, some horses, because there is little or no have fixed upon a good location, we grass, just enough here and there at hunt up fir boughs for bedding and improvised rafts roped across the mission headquarters for a few head wood for the fire. Then we shovel stream. Some of us were afraid of the of cattle. Dogs are our heasts of burthe snow off the frozen ground with They are the pride of the rushing waters and had to be carried den. In some mission we have as our snowshoes handled as shovels, we to the water-washed rafts. At long many as twenty-four. They feed on clear off stones and bits of wood, and then make our beds of pine boughs "Each sledge requires four good laid flat one opon the other to the dogs. When you start for any object depth of a foot Before placing the "In the early days of our Indian la Loche, some two hundred miles takes so many nights to go to such direction of the wind, so that the "One great advantage in these pathis burning brightly. We unharness the dogs. They run and leap about, burying their snouts in the snow and eating it for very joy. The dogs must be fed first. Each one of us campers takes a frozen fish from the provision bags, turns it once or twice over the fire, shouts "Caesar! Pompey! Bruno! Ball," and flings it to the dogs, who make wild leaps for the scorched-fish. Their meal is quickly devoured, and as soon as it is over they walk round and round in one spot, curl themsleep all night. If the cold becomes oath. try to lie on our feet. Meanwhile we directed against Catholics struck out.

......

Saves You Money

A Stationery Cabinet

destroy pathe dust had got at it or because it had been soiled. Our form Cabi- • net will save Thedrawers will hold foolscap or papers. The Cabinet is made of oak and nicely

How many times have

Made in different sizes. Write The Office Specialty Mfg. Co. 77 BAY STREET, TORONTO, CANADA

A Lune Explanation

The following letter, which appears in The Toronto World of Tuesday, contained in our editorial article to-

Editor World-I notice by this evening's News that Principal Manley offers an explanation of the order given one day last week to the Roman Catholic pupils in the Jarvis Street Collegiate to stand out of their classes and be counted. is the explanation:

"Principal Manley stated in an interview this morning that the step so excellent and law-abiding a manindicated in the a ove paragraph was simply taken in pursuance of the custom prevailing in Collegiate Institutes of obtaining information every year as to the number of Roman Catholic students in attendance. The principal says that in taking that course he was not prompted by any took private residence at the corner curiew law with all the means of outside suggestion from either man or of Stewart and Simcoe streets, where evasion that exist would only make newspaper, but was simply acting for he suffered the loss of his wife, Mrs.

eel a deep interest in the efficiency of and acknowledge right-hand of the High Schools I know that when a pupil enters the Collegiate instiute the rule is to include his or her religious denomination in the record. If Principal Manley "for the informaion of the board" obliges the Roman Catholic pupils occasionally to stand out in an isolated and conspicuous manner in the presence of the school, think he is doing something calcuated to ostracize the Roman Cathoics from the institution over which ne presides, and in which they should have equal rights with Protestants. But I opine that the treatment to which these pupils were subjected last week was not intended for the information of the board, because I mentioned it in conversation with members of the board, and they instantly expressed both amazement and indignation. Furthermore the result of the count was published in The News at that sad moment was at the bededitorial of the day upon which it side in the double capacity of ghostly was made. It is a most unfortunate father and dutiful son.

incident to my thinking. Toronto, Sept. 28.

Canada and the Coronation Oath

LordBray Sees the Archbishops the Dominion Who Will Petition Parliament Again.

Lord Bray, an English Catholic nobleman, is at present in Toronto. In part his mission to Canada is to interview the hierarchy of the Catholic Church in regard to an alteration selves up, snout on tail and toes, and being made in the King's coronation He is one of the chief persons too great they snugble up to us and in the movement to have the clause selves in sympathy with the matter.

"They have stated," said Lord Bray that they will join in a petition to the Imperial Parliament to have the clause omitted. The Dominion Parliament is slow to move in the mat-It is only by continuing to petition that we will attain our aim,

 The merits of a piano lie in the construction, on which depends the tone, quality and the endurance of the instrument. The

Heintzman & Co. Piano

is well constructed. It has been used by some of the world's greatest musical artists, who have been unanimous in describing it as a

The Passing Away

aminer, had for many years been a prominent feature in the citizenship John Scollard, of Ennismore. He was born in King's County, Ireland, about the year 1829 and came in Canada Mr. Phelan's father settled in the Township of Dummer. from which after several years he re- led a genuine esteem. moved to Douro, near Young's Point where he remained till his death about 1850. Edward Phelan set out to face the world on his own account at the early age of thirteen years, and the success he made of life, from the human point of view, is a proof of his native force of character. He was for many years associated with keeping our young children off the the lumbering business. It is stated that he piloted the first timber that came down the back waters to Peter- young children apparently find more borough, receiving for his services pleasure on the street in the evening $16 per day. About the year 1854, than they do in their homes, but the Mr. Phelan began conducting the suggested remedy of the curfew law, Phelan House Liotel, which has been so long and widely and so creditably associated with his name, as a model needs no further comment than is hotel of its class-always admirably more policemen as the city now has conducted and noted for its strict observance both of the law of hospitality and the law of the land. Here it may be mentioned that the the children whose crime it is to delate Mr. Phelan was, what it is rare to find among the generality of men adults and property would be unproin active life half a century ago not to speak of hotel keepers-a life-This long total abstainer from intoxi- men to comply with the spirit of the canis. With his thrifty, industrious curiew law and warn young children ner, it was no surprise that Mr. amassed considerable means. He conducted the hotel continuously till 1882, and, after a brief retirement, for some time subsequently. He re-Phelan, who had been I am a ratepayer of this city and companion, his faithful help-meet, worldly success, dying in June, 1892. This sad event was a sad blow Mr. Phelan, from which he never ralied, for from the time of Phelan's death, June 10th, 1902, his oviality of spirit departed, and his health visibly declined. He has been in more or less unsatisfactory health suffered an attack of bronchial asthma, complicated with an affection of the heart. About ten days ago his condition seemed in some way character of his illness could not be ignored, hope was entertained of some further prolongation of life, but yesterday a sudden change supervened, and death took place, somewhat unexpectedly; for the only one of three sons present was Rev. Father C. J. Phelan, of Young's Point, who In July, 1853, Mr. Phelan was united in marriage to Miss Mary Sullivan, daughter of the late John Sullivan. To this marriage were born seven sons, only three of whom are living, Harry Phelan, of Peterbor-J. Phelan, of ough; Rev. Father C. Young's Point, and Walter Phelan, of the License Branch of the Provincial tario's vital statistics suggest, that Secretary's Department. Mr. and Mrs. Phelan could have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last July had Mrs. Phelan lived till that time Mr. Phelan won a high degree o respect in the community, of which he was a member for three score and ten years. Though he never took much interest in municipal matters, he was for many years actively associated with Dominion politics, in the Conservative interests. In religon the late Mr. Phelah was a Catholic, earnestly devoted to the interests of Mother Church, as especially represented by St. Peter's Cathedral -a member of its congregation, upon whom, so far as a layman's services were concerned, the clergy could always confidently depend. One of the late Mr. Phelan's practices, which may almost be said to have become a habit, was his constant presence at funerals, where he was always to be seen, occupying a place at the close of the procession. ndependently of the age, sex, creed or social position of the deceased. From his long association with the public, there were few men in town or country more widely known or more highly respected.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Edward Phelan took place Wednesday at 10 o'clock from 't. Peter's Cathedral, where the remains had been taken from his late residence, corner of Stewart and Simcoe streets. As an which Mr. Phelan was held a very large number of citizens were in attendance at the Cathedral, and the procession was the largest seen in a Factorics - - Newmarket 115-117 King St. W., Toronto. was sung at the Cathedral, the celebrant being Rev. Father Phelan, of Young's Point, son of the deceased.

Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, of Ennismore, was Deacon and Rev. Father Scanlon, of Grafton, was Sub-Deacon, of Edward Phelan Scanlon, of Grafton, was Sub-Deacon, Father John O'Brien was Master of Ceremonies. In the sanctuary were Peterborough, Sept. 24.-Edward Fathers McColl, Conway and O'Con-Phelan, whose death was briefly rePeter Simons, Mr. Thos. Fortye and corded in Monday's issue of The ExMr. Edward Brown, of Peterborough, Mr. P. A. Kearney, and Mr. J. E. The pall-bearers were, 'Mr. nell Mr. P. A. Kearney and Mr. J. Kearney, of Young's Point, and Mr. of Peterborough, town and county. burial took place at the Catholic Cemetery to which the remains were followed by a very large number of to Canada with his father's family many of the relatives of the late Mr. vehicles. Among the mourners, were when only three months old-nearly Phelan, as well as those of his late seventy-five years ago. On his arrival wife. The death of Mr. Phelan removes from Peterborough one of best known men in the town, and one for whom all who knew him possess-

Keep the Children Off the Editor Catholic Register:

A good deal of attention is being given at present to the question of streets after nightfall. Undoubtedly it is a very great evil that so many, will not be of behefit. It would be necessary to employ about as many in order to properly enforce the law, and while they were escorting home sire exercise for voice and limb, some tected. Let us rather ask the policehabits and with a hotel conducted in who are found on the street late at night without good reason for being Phelan prospered in business and there. This they do to a certain extent now, but let it be a settled pollicythat it is part of their duty, and we may expect a little improvement. tired finally a few years ago and To insist upon trying to enforce the ren that policemen are their natural our downtown streets the other evening the problem of the children and for a year past, but six weeks ago he in the shadow of a house on the proved, and though the dangerous play on the grass?" The guardian of the peace good-naturedly gave consent and they went to play on the boulevard. In the same house-shadow was a huiking vagrant fellow whom the policeman roughly ordered to were playing no harm could come to them, but after tiring of play they. would gather in the dark corners, and the hulking vagrant fellow would tell of his experiences and teach them, as is the manner of those people, all the evil he knew. The problem of what to do with the boy receives a good deal of attention and yet On-> we have not enough of him. W. O'C.

The Highest Type of Excellence in Musical Instruments is Exemplified

BELL PIANOS