THE OBSERVER:

A Weekly Independent Journal, advocating Political, Municipal and Social Progress and Reform.

THE following will be special features in THE OBSERVER:

1. OBSERVATIONS, by MARC MARIUS. This trenchant writer has been specially retained to perambulate the city with a big stick, and every week some one is sure to feel the weight of it.
2. MUSIC AND THE DRAMA, by VIOLA. This gentleman is universally admitted to be one of the best musical and dramatic critics on the American continent. His weekly review will be looked forward to with interest.
3. THE PASSING SHOW, by Wilfrid Wisgast. This article will consist of comments on political and social events of the week, happening in any part of the world. Mr. Wisgast is a high kicker.
4. Occasional Articles by HORACE SMITH and other able writers. Look out for what Mr. Horace Smith will say in THE OBSERVER of next week on "Morality in Toronto."
5. SOCIETY NEWS up to date, Secret Societies, original, humorous, and select Poetry, Current Literature, the Gossip of Society and the Clubs, and various features of special interest.

THE OBSERVER is published every Friday afternoon, at 99 Adelaide Street West, where all letters to the Editor are to be addressed.

Price Five Cents.
