Thos. Barr, the noted breeder of Ayrshire cattle, at Hobsland, Scotland, with Mrs. Barr, is visiting Canada. They were interested spectators at the ringside at the Canada Central Exhibition, Ottawa, Ont., while their favorites were being judged, and expressed themselves as highly pleased with the showing made by the popular Scotch breed of dairy cattle at this show. Extirmo is the name of a well-recommended English preparation for destroying rats. It is supposed to kill and mummify them, leaving nothing but the dry pelt or shell in a comparatively inoffensive state, with no danger of epidemic if the rodents die under flooring. One form of the poison is made for destroying beetles and cockroaches. Extirmo is said to be now used by the Port of London Authority and the principal docks and ship owners. A. P. Westervelt, manager of the new National Fat Stock Show, to be held in Toronto in November, was busy conferring with stockmen during the exhibitions at Toronto, Ottawa and London, and reports having found a large number of them willing to exhibit. He estimates that five or six of the buildings in Exhibition Park will be required for the new show. Cattle are to be shown in the Stock Arena and horses in the Transportation Building and horticultural products in the Government Building.
