

CHATS WITH YOUNG MEN

OPPORTUNITY

They do me wrong who say I come no more
When once I knock and fall to find you lie
For every day I stand outside your door
And bid you wake and rise and fight to win like grain is sown from the sower's hand. I drifted about the neighborhood, accepting any kindness given me, feeling bitterly, my position but not knowing which way to turn to become self supporting.

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

CORPUS CHRISTI

Dear, children, kiss your flowers, and fling them at His feet;
He comes, the Lord of flowers, of all things fair and sweet.

A BRAVE LITTLE BOY

The village of Gravelle, was on an island of the Seine, inhabited by about forty families. There the vicar of Rigny went several times a week to say Mass in a little chapel. Pierre Bureau, a boy of eleven, always served the vicar's Mass.

THE REWARD OF PRAYER

Recently four of us were talking of prayers to different saints and of the answers to the prayers we had experienced. We are four middle aged people and have had the usual indifferent experiences as to success and happiness in life that falls to the lot of those who are not born to set the world on fire with their brilliant fancy, nor to make it over by some wonderful process they have invented.

his bedside, the boy opened his eyes for the last time. The mother sobbed aloud. Pierre felt for her hand and laid his own upon it; then, closing his eyes he heaved a faint sigh, and his pure soul took its flight to heaven.—The Sentinel of the Blessed Sacrament.

TRYING TO IGNORE GOD

Again the vexed question of the agency which won the War is bobbing up tenaciously in the daily press without, seemingly, any prospect of a solution that may satisfy the seekers after the truth in the matter for the sake of truth.

The water was now creeping into the sanctuary. Pierre climbed upon the altar shelf, where he remained for some time. Hours passed, he thought—it might have been only moments. The water was now rising above his feet. It crept along the shelf where he crouched. With a desperate effort, the ciborium in one hand, he mounted to the top of the tabernacle. There he sat, with it pressed to his heart, still praying.

Next morning, when the flood had somewhat subsided, a small boat containing a priest with two carmen, made its way to the submerged village of Gravelle. They advanced toward the chapel, the door of which they found open, forced by the winds and the waves. The water was still high that the little boat could ride upon it easily.

LINCOLN'S TRIBUTE TO NUNS ON CIVIL WAR MEMORIAL

The model of the memorial to the nuns of the battlefield to be erected by the Ladies Auxiliary, A. O. H., was recently submitted for inspection. On its marble face will be sculptured the figures of ten nuns, representing the various Sisterhoods engaged in nursing our soldiers during the Civil War.

Of all the forms of charity and benevolence seen in the crowded wards of the hospitals, those of some Catholic Sisters were among the most efficient. I never knew whence they came or what was the name of their order. More lovely than anything I have ever seen in art, so long devoted to illustrations of love, mercy and charity, are the pictures that remain of those modest Sisters going on their errands of mercy through the suffering and the dying.

There is an old saying, "As long as there is life there is hope." We can change that and say just as truly, "As long as there is hope there is life." Without hope, without desire, life soon fails, because life is but a boundless hope, a great desire, an unfulfilled quest.—P. F. Olton.

LEARN WHAT YOUR SKIN NEEDS

Choose the cream that will supply just what your special skin conditions require. You could not make a pink blouse white and a white blouse pink by dipping them both in pink dye! Nor can you make the charm of health to a dry, rough skin and to an unsightly oily skin, by using the same cream for both. Each condition demands a different corrective method, a different cream. Read below carefully and learn which of the different creams and lotions your skin needs.

When putting up a fence it is good economy to erect the best kind of fence with a view to permanency. A Dennis Iron Fence will last as long as the building itself. We make many styles at various prices, each strong, simple and dignified in design, and inexpensive in ultimate cost or when considered as year-by-year protection.

Coca-Cola Why Coca-Cola is so refreshing The refreshing quality of Coca-Cola, which has made it a favorite with the millions, is the result of three factors which are entirely natural and wholesome.

THE COCA-COLA COMPANY ATLANTA, GA. First—Coca-Cola is prepared with cold, carbonated water, which alone is quite refreshing. Second—Coca-Cola contains natural fruit flavorings, which, with pure sugar, are very refreshing. Third—Coca-Cola contains a purified extract from tea, called caffeine, which is both wholesome and refreshing. Coca-Cola may therefore be described as a cold, carbonated, fruit-flavored improvement upon tea, of approximately one-fourth the stimulating strength of the average cup of tea. Coca-Cola is entirely wholesome, delicious and refreshing.
