

Something Great.

The trial was ended—the vigil past; All clad in his arms was the night at last. The godly light in the whole wide land, The face that shone with a purpose grand, The king looked on him with anxious eyes, And said: "He is most for some high enterprise."

So from the palace he rode away; There was trouble and need in the town that day; A child had strayed from his mother's side Into the woodland dark and wide.

He shook her hand from his bride's side; "Alas! poor mother, you ask in vain. Some messenger would bring you news, Some squire or varlet of low degree, To help me to bring my lost one home!"

There was a word for a noble fight, I am sad at heart for your babe's fate, But I ride in haste to do something great."

So he rode in his armor bright, His sword all keen for the longed-for fight. "Laugh with us—laugh!" cried the merry crowd, "Oh, weep!" wailed others with sorrow bowed.

"Hush!" the king said and weary prayed, But for joy, nor grief, nor need he stayed. And the years rolled on, as his horse grew dim, And he died—and none made moan for him.

He missed the good he might have done; He missed the mother who had loved him so, Seeking some glorious task to find, His eyes to his humble work were blind. He tried to find his way to his own home, He tried to find his way to his own home, He tried to find his way to his own home, He tried to find his way to his own home.

The Earl of Bandon's agent, Messrs. Doherty and Jones, calling on the tenants to pay up the rent due in November last within a week. Numerous writs have also been issued for the recovery of rent on the property. The tenants of the Rev. T. L. Hicks, Ballydeob, have refused to pay the judicial rents, though offered abatements of 25 per cent.

On Jan. 2, a centenary patriot named Michael Carroll, Coolagowan, Fermoy, died at the ripe old age of 101 years. He was a wonderful old man, firmly built, and he possessed extraordinary vital powers. Only a week before his death he walked to Fermoy and back, a distance of eight miles, without feeling any fatigue.

The Catholic clergy of the diocese of Cork, headed by the Vice-Grand, Monsignor Kierdan, have published their unanimous protest against the imprisonment of Father Kennedy, of Meelin, for the second time, and the brutal treatment to which he has been subjected, for a so-called "crime," which, the signers say, "cannot by the most perverse ingenuity be termed other than purely political. As attested by the resident magistrates who sentenced him, it lay in the fact that he attended a meeting of the Irish National League in his own parish in a suppressed district.

At Coolagort Petty Sessions, on Jan. 4th, a respectable farmer named Shanahan was fined 10s. for having a gun in his possession in a proclaimed district without a license. It has transpired that Mr. Condon, M. P., held a midnight meeting on the Kenmare estate, near Fermoy, on December 29th. A large number of tenants were present, and Mr. Condon delivered a speech. The police did not put in an appearance.

Limerick. Mr. Hobson, sub-sheriff, and his two bailiffs, arrived in Kilmallock, on Jan. 3, and thence proceeded to Mountcoote, a distance of two miles, to evict a Mr. John Byrne, a large farmer on the Coote estate, for non title. Mr. Byrne and his family were obliged to seek shelter in an out-house. There was not the slightest resistance offered.

It is anticipated that the struggle on the Glensharrold estate will result in the eviction of almost every family on the property. The agent applied some time ago at the Newcastle-West Petty Sessions for decrees of possession, as the tenants refused to leave quietly. Through a technical point raised by the tenants' solicitor, Mr. Gordon, the application proved futile for the present. The agent has renewed the application, both at Newcastle-West and Fermoy, in which district a small portion of the estate lies.

The Gazette announces the election of Lord Clarina as an Irish representative Peer in succession to the late Lord Lucan. On Dec. 22d, the dead body of a man, in a very advanced stage of decomposition, was washed ashore on the strand to the northward of Clogher Head. From documents found in the clothing of the deceased by the police, it was ascertained that his name was John Sheehan, a native of Limerick, and that he was a dealer in singing birds.

Tipperary. Through the instrumentality of the agent, J. Butler-levens, Esq., J. P., Glenduff Castle, an abatement of 25 per cent. has been offered to the Staveloy (minors in Chancery) tenants at Coolahy, Coolinacorney, Clonewry, Gardenvill, Kells, and Ballymaginn.

Clare. A respectable farmer named Mr. O'Gorman, of Shanahan, was the victim, it is alleged, of a moonlighting attack on St. Stephen's night, when three or four armed men visited his dwelling-house. One of them, presenting a revolver, demanded his gun, which was given him, when they fired two shots outwards, and having broken the gun, decamped. The outrage is not attributed to anything political.

On Dec. 29th, the singular occurrence of the military singing "God Save Ireland" through the streets, took place at Kilmuck. About half-past nine o'clock, about twenty five of the soldiers of the 21st Royal Berkshire Regiment of the detachment quartered at the Capps Barracks, met in Francis street, and commenced singing "God Save Ireland," continuing onwards the bridge, followed by a crowd of civilians, who chorused the military. Some police went to the police barracks and gave word when about thirteen of the Royal Irish Constabulary, in charge of District-Inspector Otter, came on the scene. This seemed to be an incentive to the soldiers, who formed into a circle at the bridge, and again commenced singing "God Save Ireland," and a song in praise of Mr. Gladstone, with increased enthusiasm. The police made no further attempt to stop the soldiers, but commenced to disperse the cheering crowds of civilians, who were gathered in large numbers.

Waterford. At the Waterford Quarter Sessions for the Hilary Term, on January 31, the Grand and Petty Jurors, informed them that, as there was no case of any kind to go before them, they might as well go home. Yet Waterford is "proclaimed" under Balfour's Coercion Act!

Mr. M. A. Manning was served with a summons under the Coercion Act, at the Quay, Waterford, on January 2d. Ten of the Donnelly tenants at Ballyduff have received New Year's gifts in the shape of writs from the new landlord, Lord Castletown. As they cannot pay the estate of the Honorable George Annesley. They found the cattle all locked up and no seizures were effected.

Donegal. The proceedings on the Olphert estate testify how far Mr. Balfour has succeeded in attaining his much-prized object of smothering the "scandal of evictions." The Tories appreciate fully the effect which such scenes as these enacted, in the attempt to throw the poor peasants of Gweedore on the roadside, exercise on the public mind of these countries. On that account they are beside themselves with rage that the resistance of the tenants to the Emergency gang and the forces of the Crown should have riveted so effectually the eyes of the people on the seasonable work in which Mr. Balfour is engaged during his Christmas visit to Ireland. What is passing in the Coercion Act Courts all over Ireland, as well as on the Olphert estate, is also a striking commentary on the futility on the Tories and other Government papers indulged in their year retrospect about Mr. Balfour's success. It shows that after two years of unlimited coercion brutally administered, backed by a solid Parliamentary majority prepared to justify murder and applaud flagitious lying, Mr. Balfour sees the goal he had set for himself receding further and further from him, and finds indelible disgrace and shame fall on the only fruit of his policy. It is very probable that the desperate situation in which he is placed may inspire him to adopt the measures of a desperate man; but the Irish people have only to face his policy in the spirit they have done up to the present a little longer, and they will reap the reward of their pluck and patience.

The tenants on Mr. D. B. Leonard's Kilmallock property, near Taam, evicted last week, have been reinstated by Mr. Kendall, receiver under the Court of Chancery, and all arrears have been wiped out—in some cases over eight years' rent—conditioned that the tenants pay down at once one year's rent, whereupon they may enter the Land Court and have a fair trial.

Roscommon. For some time past negotiations have been pending between Major Balfe, J. P., and his tenants, with a view to their purchasing their holdings under the Ashbourne Act. Owing to the landlord demanding what were considered exorbitant terms, negotiations have just been broken off.

Twelve writs have been served on Lord De Freyne's tenantry at Fairmount. The tenants are determined to hold out for fair terms.

Mayo. The eviction campaign has been again ruthlessly renewed by the Marquis of Sligo in the remote locality of Louisburgh. It would seem as if he were jealous of the notoriety of his cousin Clarinda, and that he wants to out-evil him in those scenes of desolation to which he has subjected the tenants who qualify himself for the latest title given to his kinsman. He is heir-apparent to the Clarinda property, and by all appearances the tenants will not gain much by the change. Lately the estate hall and church, built by, executed by a large force of police, arrived from Westport and evicted three families in the grey dawn. There was no resistance or demonstration of any kind during the evictions. The poor creatures had to take shelter by the ditches and walls, as they would not be admitted back as caretakers.

The Rev. William Joyce, P. P., was called on to administer the last rites of the Church to one of the evicted—a poor old woman, eighty years of age, both blind and lame and bedridden for a number of years. Father Joyce begged of the representatives of Lord Sligo and the sheriff to admit her into the house until he could give her the last Sacraments, but they positively refused. These circumstances, no other house being near, the priest had to force the door and get her inside to give her the last rites of the Church. After he left, the people removed her out right, fearing the law.

My Toothache. Is an exclamation heard every hour in the day. Toothache is the most common ailment of young and old, and in the aggregate inflicts more suffering than perhaps any other single complaint. A one minute cure is just what every person desires to possess. Nervine—never pain cure—acts almost instantly in relieving the agony, and as a sample bottle affords a quantity sufficient for 100 applications, 10 cent fills the bill. Poison's Nervine is the only positive remedy for toothache and all nerve pains. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

Mr. W. R. Laidler, balliff, etc., Belleville, writes: "I find Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil the best medicine I have ever used in my stable. I have used it for bruises, scratches, wind puffs and cuts, and in every case it gave the best satisfaction. We use it as a household remedy for colds, burns, etc., and is a perfect panacea. It will remove warts by paring them down and applying it occasionally."

A Hint to Housekeepers. Mrs. Robert Williamson, of Glenilla, Parry Sound, Ont., says, "I could not keep house without Higgard's Yellow Oil at hand. I have used it in my family for croup, sore throat, and a cut foot, and can highly recommend it to everybody."

THE PROPER CHANNEL for the escape from the system of impurities which would, if they remained, poison the blood, is through the bowels. When this outlet is obstructed it may be disencumbered with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, a remedy which regulates the system, invigorates digestion, and is pure and safe as well as effective. It cures all diseases arising from impure Blood.

A Severe Trial. Frances S. Smith, of Emsdale, Muskoka, writes, "I was troubled with vomiting for two years, and I have vomited as often as five times a day. One bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters cured me."

There is nothing equal to Mother Graves' Worm Extirminator for destroying worms. No article of its kind has given such satisfaction.

A Postmaster's Opinion. "I have great pleasure in certifying to the usefulness of Higgard's Yellow Oil," writes Dr. Kavanagh, postmaster of Umfraville, Ont., "having used it for soreness of the throat, burn, colds, etc., I find nothing equal to it."

A Severe Attack. "I never felt better in my life than I have since taking Burdock Blood Bitters. I had a severe bilious attack; I could not eat for several days, and was unable to travel. One bottle cured me." John M. Richards, St. Tara, Ont. For all bilious troubles use B. B. B.

Holloway's Corn Cure is the medicine to remove all kinds of corns and warts and only costs the small sum of twenty-five cents.

VICTORIA CARBOLIC SALVE is a great aid to internal medicine in the treatment of scrofulous sores, ulcers and abscesses of all kinds.

A Famous Doctor

Once said that the secret of good health consisted in keeping the head cool, the feet warm, and the bowels open. Had this eminent physician lived in our day, and known the merits of Ayer's Pills as an aperient, he would certainly have recommended them, as so many of his distinguished successors are doing.

The celebrated Dr. Farnsworth, of Norwich, Conn., recommends Ayer's Pills as the best of all remedies for "Intermittent Fevers."

Dr. L. E. Fowler, of Bridgeport, Conn., says: "Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."

Dr. Mayhew, of New Bedford, Mass., says: "Having prescribed many thousands of Ayer's Pills, in my practice, I can unhesitatingly pronounce them the best cathartic in use."

The Massachusetts State Assayer, Dr. A. A. Hayes, certifies: "I have made a careful analysis of Ayer's Pills. They contain the active principles of well-known drugs, isolated from inert matter, which plan is, chemically speaking, of great importance to their usefulness. It insures activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. Ayer's Pills contain no metallic or mineral substance, but are a combination of vegetable remedies in skillful combination."

Ayer's Pills, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Dealers in Medicine.

General Grocers, of London, have now in stock a large quantity of BLENDED WINE, whose purity and genuineness for Sacramental use is attested by a certificate signed by the Rector and Prefect of St. Charles of the Diocese of Montreal. We have ourselves seen the original of the certificate, and can testify to its authenticity. The Clergy of Western Ontario are cordially invited to send for samples of this truly superior wine for altar use.

CATARRH.

A NEW HOME TREATMENT FOR THE CURE OF CATARRH, CHRONIC DEAFNESS AND HAY FEVER. The microscope has proved that these diseases are contagious, and that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the internal lining of the nose, throat, and ear passages, and in the sinuses. The eminent scientists, Fyfe, Huxley, and Beale, in their works on the microscope, have shown that the regular method of treating these diseases is to apply an irritant remedy weekly, and evade disease, thus keeping the delicate membrane in a constant state of irritation, accompanied by violent sneezing, allowing it to become local, and at a natural consequence of such treatment not one permanent cure has been effected. It is an absolute fact that these diseases cannot be cured by any application made either once or twice a week, for the membrane must get a chance to heal before an application is repeated. It is now seven years since Mr. Dixon discovered the parasite in catarrh and formulated his new treatment, and since then his remedy has become a household word in every country where the English language is spoken. Cures effected by him seven years ago are as fresh as if they had been no return of the disease, still, and he has been successful in curing thousands of cases.

So highly are these remedies valued, and so great is the demand for them, that the application of which they are equally ignorant, Mr. Dixon's remedy is applied in all cases of catarrh, and from one to three applications effect a permanent cure in the most aggravated cases. These remedies are a specific for catarrhal troubles peculiar to females.

Mr. Dixon has also a pamphlet describing his new treatment on the receipt of ten cents in stamps. The address is A. H. Dixon & Co., 100 West, Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American.

Headquarters for Church Candles. ESTABLISHED 1855. BECKERMANN & WILL'S BEES-WAX ALTAR - CANDLES. With Self-Fitting Base.

To the Rev. Clergy and Religious: For thirty-three years we have made a specialty of manufacturing BEES-WAX CANDLES for Altar use, and in this long time various improvements in the production of these goods have enabled us to reduce the price, so that now it is within the reach of the poorest parish. In all a fine nothing has met with such a large measure of success as our Candles with

SELF-FITTING BASE. The saving in time and trouble to produce a Candle into candle stick, to which may be added the fact that

The Candle can be Burned to the Very End. Thus avoiding CONSIDERABLE Waste of Wax, and the necessity of general favor that we have condescended to make both Bees-wax and Stearic candles with the same improvement and in all sizes, viz: 2 1/2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, and 10.

The advantage in this style of Candle over the ordinary shape consists in the tapering base, which is so graduated as to fit any approximately standard candle socket. The Catholic Clergy of Canada are respectfully invited to send for catalogue and prices before awarding contracts. We have lately put in a complete set of French in the Brantford Catholic Church, and for many years past have been favored with contracts from a number of the Clergy in other parts of Ontario, in all cases the most entire satisfaction having been expressed in regard to quality of work, lowness of price, and quickness of execution. Such has been the increase of business in this special line that we found it necessary some time since to establish a branch office in Glasgow, Scotland, and we are now a capped manufacturing firm for the Province of Ontario, in that country and Ireland.
