Daniel M. Ciark, Brainard Minn.

Permit me here to observe that there does not appear to be importance enough attached to the appointment of those Deputies. Too often the position is regarded as an honorary one, intended more for ornament than use, and the care is true of the appointment of Grand. more for ornament than use, and the same is true of the appointment of Grand and District Deputies. This is not right. The Constitution lays down and clearly defines the duties of Deputies. They represent either the Supreme or Grand Presidents who appointed them, and as occasion may require, are to perform the Presidents who appointed them, and as occasion may require, are to perform the duties of these officers, within their respective jurisdictions. Among other things, a Supreme Deputy is to see that the work of the association is performed uniformly within his jurisdiction. "He uniformly within his jurisdiction. He may, for that purpose, exemine the books or papers of the Council or Branches over which he is placed, and his commands in regard to the manner of keeping the same should, and in accordance with the Con-stitution must, be obeyed. Having in view the spread and healthy growth of the association, it is to be hoped that Supreme Deputies in States where Grand Councils have not as yet where Grand Councils have not as yet been formed will from time to time cause to be publ'shed in Catholic papers in their localities, articles calling the atten-tion of Catholics to the benefits, aims and objects of the association. Indeed I am pleased to notice that several Supreme Deputies are already doing this, and I Deputies are already doing this, and I look for good results from their work in the near future. I congratulate you on the prosperous and flourisbing condition of the association. Beneficiary claims are now paid promptly on receipt of the proper papers and proofs. their home, Resolved, That we, the members of St. Patrick's Branch, No. 12, individually and collectively, do hereby tender our sympathy to them in their sad bereavement, and trust that God in His it fighter mercy will give them the grace to bear their severe trial with humble Christian resignation to His holy will, and pray that when they are called from this world that He will grant them the blessing of being re united with their beloved child. Resolved, That a copy of the above be presented to Brother Burns and inserted in the efficial journal.

Brother Journals—It is my very painful duty to record the very sudden death of Brother J. McMahon, the efficient Recording Secretary of St. Paul's Branch, No. 8, Foronto, which took place on Wednesday, July 10th. The deceased had been unwell for a few days, but his family had no reason to suppose that their was any danger. On the day named he was following his usual occupa-tion, but, complaining of not feeling well, returned from about 3 p. m., and be ore 6 p. m. his soul was summoned to appear before its Creator. But it is a consolation to know that his confessor was in time to give him the last rites of holy Church, and that he had received holy Communion within the last two weeks. Communion within the last two weeks.

The decessed was a very energetic member of his branch, being ever ready, in season or out of season to forward the good work of the E B A. His funces took place on Saturday, the 13th, from his late residence to St. Paul's church, theree to St. Michael's cemetery. Representatives from each of the cithranches, led by the band of the I. C. E U., preceded the hearse, followed by his fellow-workmen of different denominations, each being desirous of showing the high respect they had for the deceased.

IRELAND'S STRUGGLE.

Mr. Birrell (Gladstonian) bas been elected for West Dirason of Fafe by 3.551 against 2758 votes for Mr. Wemyss (Radical Unionist). The late member, Mr. R. P. Bruce, was also a Gladstonian. The Liberals have only held their own in this election, but this is precisely what the Government have not been able to do. Dover, which at present has Lord Charles Beresford, a Conservative, for its member, will be also contested by the Liberals, who have fair hope of winning, or at least of very much reducing the huge majority of 1485, by which Lord Charles was returned. Lord Randolph Churchill has definitely

Lord Randolph Churchill has definitely determined to stand for Central Birmingham, the local Conservatives refusing to obey the dictates of the central authority, which desired that John Albert Bright might be permitted to retain the seat as a Liberal Unionist This action on the part of Lord Randolph and his supporters is likely to cause much trouble for the Conservative managers as the Unionists will probably managers, as the Unionists will probably rebel if one of their number be displaced by a Conservative in contravention of a distinct understanding that he was not to be opposed. Many shrewd political observers see in this incident the rock observers see in this incident the rock upon which the present Government is destined to go to pieces.

In a speech at Cardiff on the 6th inst,
Mr. Gladstone referred to the American constitution as a marvel of political wisdom, exhibiting the benefits of a devolution in contrast with the evils of devolution in contrast with the evision too great centralization, of which France and Italy were examples. Mr. Gladstone spoke of the addresses sent him from New York and Illinois, and said these and similar expressions of opinion on the Home Rule question from a nation rapidly advancing to the position of the primary power of the English speaking races ought to give every prudent Englishman material for reflection.

The Queen has donated £50 to the sufferers of the railroad accident at Armagh, Ireland. The Irish people would duly appreciate such an act, if Her Majesty exhibited a little sympathy for inspecty exhibited a little sympathy for the poor tenants who are daily driven from their homes, and who are left to starve by the roadside, their houses, the fruit of the labor of their hands, being torn down over their heads.

Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, with Mr. Justice Hawkins, has issued a man damus to compel Mr. Bridge, the magistrate who refused to issue a summons against the Duke of Cambridge for assaulting a journalist, to show cause why he should not do his duty. Mr. T. W. Russell has been holding a meeting of Liberal Unionists and Tories in Aberdeen. Aberdeen is, however, staunchly Liberal, and Mr. Russell's staunchly Liberal, and Mr. Russell's meeting was a failure, the hall being poorly filled and many of those present being Home Rulers. Mr. Gladstone's name was always greeted with loud cheering, and Mr. Balfour's with most decided hissing. This is an omen of the fate which awaits the Coercion Government as soon as the people have a company of the provider of the pr ment as soon as the people have an op-portunity to pronounce judgment on it. The arbitration appointed to settle the dispute between landlord and tenants on the Pollock estate decided that the rents should be reduced 20 per cent, the evicted tenants being restored, and all costs paid by the landlord.

It is believed that the storm of public

Mr. Parnell authorizes the announcement that the Irish party will immediate ly form a tenants' defence league for protection against the landlord syndicate.

Wm. O'Brien arrived at Tipperary on Tuesday last. It was rent day, but no tenants paid. All assembled in the town hall. Mr. O'Brien announced that a few days, perhaps a few hours, would see the formation of a league uniting the Irish throughout the world for a final struggle against the landlords.

Michael Davitt, in an interview, said:

"The new Tenants' Defence League will give a new start to the Irish cause which will be of immense importance. It will give a new start to the Irish cause which will be of immense importance. It will bring men of all shades of opinion on the popular side into a fighting line under Mr. Parnell. The whole of the reserves will move up to his support. The Government will no longer deal with men in the gap, but with the whole Irish race. Mr. Parnell is more emphatically than ever the man on horseback. Mr. Balfour will be better able to appreciate the difference six months hence than to day."

The President of the Orange Free State, the Hon. F. W. Rritz, has sent a message of political sympathy to Mr. Parnell by the hands of the Rev. J.hn Fitzoatrick, O M I, who recently arrived at Kilburn from Bloemfontein.

On the 28th ult. evictions were resumed on the Pousonby estate. A force of 200 military and police acc mpanied the sheriff and balliffs to the scene of opera tions at Kuockmoncles and Park, and th battering ram was used against a barricaded house occupied by a man named Fiynn. Several persons inside the house threw out oiling water on the attacking party. After a stubborn resistance an entrance was forced, and two of the Flynns and four women were arrested. When the police and military left the scene the prisoners were released. Michael Mahony was also evicted at Park, but Mrs. D.yle was allowed to remain on a certificate by a dector that she was too ill to bear removal. Over 100 of the tenants were removal. Over 100 of the tenants were served with writs of ejectment, as the estate has been sold and will be cleared. The jury in the case of Matthew Harris against the Irish Times for libel, for asserting that he was an Invincible, has return a verdict for £1 000 for the plaintiff. Upon John O'Connor's refusal to violate his Fenian oath or to tell anything which he has promised to keep secret, notwith-standing his hostility to the extreme to which the secret societies had gone, Sir yames Hannen, after reproving the wit ness in somewhat strong language, asked him whether he were a Protestant or a Roman Catholic; and then whether the Church justified him in refusing to an Church justified him in refusing to an-swer all questions in giving evidence on the ground that he had taken an illegal oath. O'Connor replied that he had not studied the theological aspect of the enb-ject. "Nor the moral?" asked Justice Hannen. "No," replied O'Connor; "but I know my own code of honor." Every one in the court room thought that some thing exitous was about to hannen. but thing serious was about to happen, but thing serious was about to happen, but the matter was dropped. The plans for this new organ ization have been slowly shaping them selves for some time past, all the Irist leaders having to be consulted upon the details before the actual work of organ ization could be begun. It is quite in one hundred and twenty cases, and the other twenty are likely at long odds to end in the same way.

The Standard has paid into Court £75 in satisfaction of the libel action instituted against that journal by Father Coveny. Thus the libel is admitted.

Mr. P. O'Brien, M. P. has entered a libel suit against Mr. T. W. For the CATHOLIC RECORD. What Does it Matter !

What does it matter if our path Be rugged, steep and stormy? What if life's stream be turbulent, What if life's stream be dirouted, Angry, dark and f umy? Even if shadows cloud our sky And all around is dreary, Repining only makes things worse, The wearied feet more weary.

What does it matter if at noon Storm clouds loom before us, If we are rudely set aside, Tis then that loyal natures shine More noble in their sorrow, Crushed and wounded for a day, They brighter rise the morrow.

What does it matter if at noon What does it matter it as to be the most and heat oppress us?
What if the failures of the most Come crowding to distress us?
Past mistakes are done and gone,
Repining will not mend them.
Then let us take life's lights and shades ust as Heaven may send them. -DELIA.
