ABERDEEN-ANGUS SELLING WELL.

Some grand average prices for Aberdeen-Angus cattle were made in the States recently. A. C. Binnie & Son of Iowa sold 35 head at an average of $344. Erica blood was at a premium, a yearling bull sold for $2,425 and a two-year-old heifer for $1,500. Both these cattle were home bred.

Another good sale of Angus cattle was the dispersion of the Pisice herd in Illinois. Here 96 head sold for an average of $286. This is the herd where the imported Prince Ito, has made so grand a reputation. He was put up at the sale and bought by Stanley R. Pierce for $1,100 after asking the privilege to bid on him. A yearling bull, Prince Albert Ito, headed the list for bulls at $1,375, while the Erica cow Erica 3rd of Woodhead, a six-year-old made $1,100, the top price for females.

AMERICAN SALE PRICES.

Prices for Shorthorns in the United States still keep rising. Sales have accrued almost daily throughout June with uniformly high averages. The largest event of the kind was that at Tebo Lawn, Kansas, which extended over three days. This is the home of the great bull "Choice Goods" which made such a showyard sensation in his younger days. He was one of the many good things imported by W. D. Platt of Hamilton when he was in that business. On the first day of the sale he sold for $5,500 to Nebraska cattle-men. He is now seven years of age. Ruberta the champion show cow headed the list for females bringing $1,325. Forty-one head averaged $532 on the first day of the sale, twenty-five of these, being imported Scotch, averaged $784.

Another good sale was that of Bellows Bros. of Missouri, on June 13th, when 51 head sold for $277.75, ten bulls averaging $407. Royal Hampton, headed the list at this sale at $1,025. We have already referred elsewhere to Col. Lowden's sale and will notice Christian's again.

Homecroft herd of Yorkshires contains Yorkshire matrons of good quality and includes the second prize yearling sow at the Winnipeg Industrial, 1905.

HUMOROUS

AN EXCELLENT JUROR.

The judge had his patience sorely tried by lawyers who wished to talk and by men who tried to evade jury service. "Shudge!" cried the German. "What it it?" demanded the judge. "I t'ink I like to go home to my wife," said the German. "You can't," retorted the judge. "Sit down." "But, shudge," persisted the German, "I don't t'ink I make a good shuror." "You're the best in the box," said the judge. "Sit down." "What box," said the German. "Jury box," said the judge. "But, shudge," persisted the little German, "I don't speak good English." "You don't have to speak any at all," said the judge. "Sit down." The little German pointed at the lawyers to make his last desperate plea. "Shudge," he said, "I don't make noddings of what these fellers say." It was the judge's chance to get even for many annoyances. "Neither can any one else," he said "Sit down."—Green Bag.

A letter of instruction said to have been sent to an army officer, who reported that Pte. Blank had lost his greatcoat, runs as follows—"The calculation of the value of a lost greatcoat should be made by deducting the value when worn out from the value when new, as given in article 75 of 1865, clothing warrant, dividing the remainder by the number of months the garment should wear, multiplying the quotient by the number of months the garment has actually been worn, and subtracting the sum thus obtained from the total value of the new greatcoat. The balance is the amount that should be charged."
