Big Winter Wheat Prospects in U.S.A.

But our markets do not break much, and it looks as if the balance of this crop will go out on considerably higher prices. Farmers, you owe it to yourselves to ship your own grain and put it out where there can be some real competition for it. We can get you good premiums on wheat, oats and barley if you get in touch with us before you bill your grain away. Careful attention given to every detail of each shipment.

Try us with your next shipment, and we believe you will be well satisfied.
