Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly.

The ability and diligence with which you have conducted the business of the Public enables me, at this early period, to close this Session of the Legislature.

I have with pleasure assented in His Majesty's name to the Bill by which the Lands bestowed by the Bounty of the Crown will be transmitted and secured to the Heirs, and according to the will of the original objects of that bounty.

The regulations which have been enacted respecting the improvement and management of some of the most essential articles of our produce meet with our approbation, and, I trust, will contribute to render that produce a permanent source of supply and of wealth to this Province.

The other laws which have passed, will, I hope, effectuate the salutary purposes for which they were intended, and prove, that in the discharge of your duty, you have not been unmindful of the important trust committed to your care.

I now close this Session of the Legislature, fully confiding that in your respective Counties and Districts as Magistrates or as private individuals you will at all times give additional force and effect to the laws of this Province by your exertions and example.
